Thanks!

The Guides, Brownies and Rainbows would like to thank the Gentlemen of the Kings Arms for everything they did for us to raise so much money at the recent Daffodil Show. Particular thanks go to John and Molly Long and Mike and Barbara Earl for their hard work on the day and to Mike and Zoë for hosting the event for us.

Thanks also to Mr & Mrs Pritchard for judging our competition entries. Your efforts are greatly appreciated by us all.

Burton Children's Sports Committee Carnival Time in Burton...

Bank Holiday 26 May is Carnival Day in Burton, so come and join the parade and make some noise. For this year's Mardi Gras theme we're inviting whole streets or individuals to help us make the event as colourful as possible. Decorate your trucks, bikes, prams or selves and grab a whistle or a drum and you may win a prize for the best costume or float.

Then join us for a BBQ and races. We've lots to keep the whole family entertained including Bucking Bronco, Bungee Run, Bouncy Castle and Gladiator ring, plus as many stalls as we can cram onto the grass. And once the children have raced around the field it's over to Mums and Dads to bag themselves a trophy.

In the evening we're having a party in the Hall, where this year's Rose Queen and her attendants will hand out the prizes. So bring your own drinks and come and join in the fun.

Parade gathers 11.45am and leaves from Green Dragon Farm at the south end of the village at 12.00 noon. 7.00pm Party in BMH & 7.15pm Presentations for sports winners and winning float or costume.

N.B. We need ALL trophies to be returned ASAP for this year's Sports Day. If you have one could you please drop it into the shop or return it to a Sports Committee member. Thank you.
