Readers' LETTERS

Dear Editors

A NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN FOR BURTON-IN-KENDAL?

You may be aware of South Lakeland Districts Council's 'Local Development Framework' (LDF) which has allocated 140 houses on 3 sites in Burton-in-Kendal.

The LDF has not yet been finally adopted, it is the final stages of consultation and the sites earmarked for allocation will not automatically be developed – but chances are that they will. We are therefore likely to have 140 more houses in Burton at some point in the future and probably sooner rather than later. This means more demand on our infrastructure – roads, electricity, water and gas supplies, drains, parking, public transport, leisure facilities, the school, the church and shops will all be affected. There are of course pros and cons and we as a community can play a large part in ensuring that the pros outweigh the cons, that infrastructure can cope and that new development will be of good quality, be relevant to our community, will support businesses, meets the needs of the community and enhance the quality of the local environment.

A Neighbourhood Plan will enable us as a community to influence planning in our Parish. Once adopted, a Neighbourhood Plan becomes part of the statutory planning system and a basis for the determination of all planning applications and appeals.

Although fairly new, Neighbourhood Plans are being finalised and adopted –

Upper Eden was the first in the country where 17 sparsely populated parishes got together to produce their Neighbourhood Plan which was formally made part of Eden's Local Development Framework in April this year.

www.eden.gov.uk/upperedenneighbourhoodplan is a good website to read how the plan came about and to read the plan itself. Upper Eden's needs, being a sparsely populated rural community, are different of course to ours – a Neighbourhood Plan is written by the community it serves and contains the needs and aspirations of that community – we can include for example: housing, further business development, transport, renewable energy – anything we see fit to include which will benefit and sustain our community.

The Parish Council would like to gauge the interest within the parish for the production of this document – it must be community led – and in the first instance would appreciate an email or phone call from you. If we find support, we will facilitate an evening seminar when we can hear much more about how to develop a plan and following that set up a Community Forum which will take the Plan forward. This Community Forum should consist of residents, businesses and anyone else with a community interest (we emphasise - it must be Community led). South Lakeland District Council is able to support and assist with the development of a Neighbourhood Plan together with other bodies such as ACT (Action with Communities in Cumbria) and funding is available through them.

Please email or ring the Clerk, Peter Smith - parish.clerk@burton-in-kendal-pc.gov.uk or Councillor Jane Hopwood - janehopwood@btinternet.com, phone: 01524 781248, or just have a chat with any councillor – contacts are on the website or on the notice board on the north end of the Memorial Hall.

Glen & Mamie would like to announce the safe arrival of Toby Thomas Ideson born 28 March weighing 8lb 7oz. The perfect little brother for Bethany, Max & Lucas.

THANKS!

Mr Baddeley would like to thank the First Responders for looking after his wife when she fell in the garden. She is now recovering.

R Baddeley, Vicarage Lane

Many grateful thanks for all offers of help, cards and prayers received during my recent illness. You will be pleased to hear that, due to the skills of my surgeon and the wonderful care of the staff at Christie Hospital in Manchester, I am cured of cancer and need no further treatment, mainly due to the fact that after 3 weeks of changes in my body I went to my GP and was put on the Fast Track system that guarantees you get the scans etc that you need within two weeks. I am living proof that this works and you can be cured. Barbara and I have had a very stressful few weeks, and all your caring and support has been such a great help, knowing that we were not alone. Our family have been wonderful and have made sure that Barbara got to the hospital every day. We can't speak too highly of the Christie Hospital staff, who treat you with dignity and kindness in every department, it is a wonderful place that treats more than 200 new patients every day from all over the world. We are so very grateful to all concerned and I am a very lucky man.

Outdoors

The Maytime flood of leafage and blossom seemed to surge more richly than ever this year - or is it that as I get older, I am ever more heartened by the lengthening of days, the return of migrant birds, the brightening of stark branches and mudded verges by the greens and whites and yellows of new growth? It's a relief, that's what it is - it's the relief. I'm still alive and so are the plants and animals. Especially the swifts, my totem or talisman. They arrived on May 6, as they always do. Now (May 22) only five at any one time have been arcing and shrilling above the rooftops, so we must fear that the drop from the two-dozen of twenty years ago to the bare dozen of the last few years is irreversible.

We're now hearing that nightingales, nationally, are down 90%. (I just once spotted one here, near Morewood School in the late 70s.) Puffins have died by the thousand as their staple food, sandeels, have moved north with the warming of the seas round Britain. (I first saw them close up on St Agnes in Scilly in the 80s, and then a few on Ailsa Craig in 1993. On that great rock off Ayrshire they were nearly wiped out when hordes of rats came ashore from a foundering ship in 1887. Now they've bombed the islet with poison, the rats are nearly gone, and the puffins are returning.)

I think we're fascinated by such happenings because they keep us intimately in touch with fellow-creatures. When agencies make the case for conservation by arguing that thriving otters, for example, or peregrines or corncrakes, are evidence of a healthy environment, I want to say: All right - that's true - what matters most to me is the sheer vivid presence of wild creatures, their looks and movements and sounds.

A curlew called the other day from the lowland between Storth Machinery and Moss House Farm - that lovely bubbling clarinet riff as the bird glides in to land. Collared doves have been fluting their three-note phrases from the roof ridges and electricity poles. Some people say, "What a boring noise, how repetitive, and it wakes me up at 5 in the morning?" To me it's one more strand in the music that lights up the good half of the year. Listen - a blackbird pipes its constantly varying tune from halfway up the cypress tree, then takes off and skims at top speed through the narrow air-space between the holly and the neighbouring pear-tree. Song thrushes are plentiful this year. Two were fighting on the lawn the other evening, one crouching, the other at full height, then both flustered into the air, flew pecking at each other, landed and faced off again, before one flew off into the holly - was it the victor or the loser in this bloodless tussle?

Just one scene in the life that has adapted, more or less comfortably, to the invasion of the world by humans. Creatures like us have been here for 5 million years or so, birds for about 65 million. Now jackdaws live in our chimney stacks as though they were crevices in cliffs. Swallows and house martins needing mud for their nests find a source in farm ponds. Rooks live in the sycamores and copper beeches that we plant in our gardens. Birds are like spray from the ocean, crowds that scatter across our world in waves, sparking the light into its rainbow colours, settling, evaporating, reappearing, season after season. I've been watching these living currents flow through our garden for thirty-five years now. Ten so or so more would be nice.

Reporting from the Parish Council meeting

The Annual Parish Council Meeting is always a bit inward looking with the council electing a new Chairman and Vice-Chairman, assigning responsibilities to the councillors, approving the accounts for audit, updating the register of interests and agreeing arrangements for appointing a new clerk. The good thing is that it gets all the administration over at one meeting. On the other hand, one can only sympathise with the resident who came, for the first time, to see what happens at the meetings.

Mike Taylor and Alan Wren were re-appointed as chairman and vice-chairman and the following appointments were made:

Burton Education Foundation
Mrs K Unsworth
Burton Recreation Trust
Cllr M Rowley
Local Area Partnership
Cllr P Rogers
Memorial Hall Committee
Cllr J Brown
Quarry Liaison Committee
Cllrs J Hopwood and A Wren
School Governor
Cllr G Isherwood

It was noted that Park View Surgery in Milnthorpe is seeking volunteers for their Patient Forum. Anyone who is interested and is a patient at either their Milnthorpe or Carnforth surgeries is invited to contact the practice manager at the Milnthorpe surgery for details.

Dalton Hall Estate is seeking Forest Management Certification from the Forest Stewardship Council. Part of the process is interaction with the local community and its representative bodies. Councillors & residents are encouraged to visit the Forest Stewardship Council website to see the criteria for certification and make comments if they wish to.

In a written report PCSO Dakin noted that during the last month in Burton some tools had been stolen from a building site and a garden gate had been damaged.

During the Open Forum, a resident expressed his concern at the proposed development on the land to the south of Burtlands Farm. He felt that the developer had not adhered to the conditions of the earlier developments, particularly on mitigating the adverse impact of the factory on his neighbours. He believed that the developer had deliberately planned a creeping development which left the neighbours concerned that this development would not be the last. He asked that the development be constrained by strict conditions which reduced the adverse impact of the factory on the neighbours.

In their subsequent discussion, the council carefully weighed the benefits of the employment and general prosperity offered by a successful and growing business against the inevitable damage caused to the quality of life of the neighbours by the noise and activity at the site. After consideration, the council resolved not to oppose the development but to ask that strict and enforceable conditions be imposed on the development. Particularly that the screening be established as planned, that positive action be taken to reduce noise nuisance especially early in the morning, and that further development which encroaches on the neighbours quality of life be restricted.

Other items at the meeting included agreement to support a proposal by the Sports Committee that they erect Christmas trees in the village this year. The Parish Council agreed to donate the lights. The playground roundabout has been refurbished and is now reinstalled. The pole for the Speed Indicator Device has been set up. A proposal to erect a flag pole was made. And finally some good news for all of us – except for one hard-done-by family of small birds – a pair of cuckoos has been heard and seen on Dalton Craggs.

BADS NEWS

The Heat is On...

The weeks are rushing by far too quickly getting us closer and closer to the last weekend in June when BADS will be performing Calendar Girls. Watch out for our posters which will be appearing around the village and see if you can spot someone you know, the usual suspects are there and also a few surprises! Ticket pre-bookings are going well and as I write it looks as if Saturday 29th will sell out first with Friday 28th a close second.

We have had our "nude" photo's taken for our 2014 calendar, which will be on sale at each performance. Overheard at the photo shoot, "I wouldn't want to do this for a living"; quick as a flash the reply came back, "not if you want to make any money at it!" Lots of banter, lots of fun, women going a bit nuts for charity which is what Calendar Girls is all about.

The next big milestone for the cast is the first undress rehearsal, but we shall take that in our stride, and by the end of June we will have a show to be proud of. We hope to see a sell out on all 3 nights so that we can donate lots to our three charities: St.John's Hospice, Cancercare and Macmillan Nurses.

Thank you to all our calendar and programme sponsors and for all the offers of raffle prizes. Also to Pascale Ainsworth and Simone Photography for your time, patience and super photo's and to Badger Press in Bowness for printing them.

You can buy your tickets from Gill and Akis at Burton Shop or from me on 781498.

BURTON FEST

Following the wonderful reception we received at last year's inaugural Burton Fest, and the fabulous feedback afterwards, we have decided that we are going to do it all again this year.

The date is set for Saturday 31 August, the tickets will remain the same price as last year, £6, and the bands are being booked as I write. So don't forget: put the date in your diary, in your phone or tie a knot in your hankie!

Roger Reports...

from the District & County Councils

Firstly THANK YOU for returning me as the Cumbria County Councillor for Lower Kentdale at the election on 2 May. The results were: John Bateson, Labour 131; Roger Bingham, Conservative 1390; Victor Brown, Liberal Democrat 654; Lester Goddard, UKIP 156.

Lower Kentdale's turn out at 49.11%, was the highest of the 22 seats being contested locally. But judging from our tellers' lists the Burton turn out was nearly 60%. I had the largest local majority. The nearest rival was 44.80 % at Kent Estuary where the Lib Dem Ian Stewart was returned. Ian, however, lost the Lib Dem County Group leadership to Joe Stephenson from Windermere. James Airey from Ulverston (a former pupil of QES, Kirkby Lonsdale) replaced Eddie Martin (who has retired) as Conservative Group Leader. Stuart Young from Carlisle was also re-elected as Labour Leader.

The party strengths changed. From 2009: Labour seats have increased from 24 to 35, Lib Dems remain the same at 16, Conservatives have dropped from 38 to 26 and Independents etc have increased from 5 to 7. There being no overall majority a coalition administration was formed at the AGM on 17 May, consisting of the Labour and Liberal Democrat members, with Stuart Young as Leader of the Council. As I belong to the opposition I lost my position on the Yorkshire Dales National Park to a newly elected Lib Dem member. I have also come off the Police and Crime Panel, and joined the County's Planning and Development Committee which should keep me busy.

My election campaign had really been going on since the district elections in 2011 and 2012. In 20 months a Burton resident recorded 37 leaflet drops from the Conservatives. During the election only the Conservatives and the Lib Dems delivered leaflets - even though we had four candidates.

Throughout the year I covered every part of the division, which stretches from the River Kent to the Lune, so I was disappointed by an allegation that I only appear around election time!

This year only three signs were vandalised compared to 2010 when, in one night, 27 Conservative posters were destroyed. Even so the biting winds did for many of them. But our reward for enduring bad weather came on Election Day when we enjoyed 13 hours of warm sunshine.

Cumbria Police News

I had a very friendly reception, though one man informed me that he'd "rather vote for Screaming Lord Sutch than vote Conservative." Main issues varied. Grumbles about benefit cuts were balanced by outrage over the £100,000 pa allowances paid to the Derby man found guilty of killing his family; opposition to gay marriage was a constant theme and, following the announcement of Lady Thatcher's death, there were many assertions that "Maggie was right" but, (surprisingly?), not that she was wrong!

All main parties got into a tangle over pot holes with Labour blaming the Conservative-Lib Dem national coalition for cutting local authority grants, the Lib Dems blamed the alleged neglect of our roads on the county's Conservative-Labour alliance, while locally the Conservatives blamed the Lib Dem-controlled South Area Committee which allocates the road funds.

I look forward to reporting the new arrangements in due course.
THANK YOU AGAIN.

Over the past month there has been a report of tools stolen from a building site in Burton and a report of damage to a garden gate. There have been a number of diesel thefts from the Kirkby Lonsdale area and a report of metal garden furniture stolen, so please continue to be vigilant and report anything suspicious to Police on 101.

Cumbria Constabulary, over a two day period, undertook a preventative operation alongside trading standards and VOSA regarding cold callers and traders passing through the Burton area, 6 vehicles were prohibited as a result of this operation.

As part of road safety week we handed out leaflets and gave advice regarding child car safety for parents collecting children from the primary school. It was brought to our attention that parking outside the school at pick up and drop off times is an increasing problem.

The current community priority for the Kendal rural East area is anti-social driving in and around Kirkby Lonsdale. Church News...

We are now well into the first phase of the proposed repair of the tower. You may have noticed a Mobile Access Tower skirting around the tower, this has allowed the architect and engineers to take a closer look at the problems we are experiencing. Other surveys will be undertaken to establish if bats are using the tower as their home (and if they are sharing it with woodworm!) All of this information will be collated by the architect in the shape of a tender document, which will be sent out to a number of contractors for pricing. One of the tenders will be selected for the next stage of the process where we will have our provisional grant offer confirmed allowing a contractor to be appointed. All of these works are required to ensure the building is maintained for everyone to worship our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ for both present & future generations.

St. James's Church has had a presence within Burton since the 12th century with the tower being the oldest part of the church. Just as the tower is built on firm foundations which have held firm for nearly 1000 years Jesus teaches us that we also need to build our lives on firm foundations. In the Parable of the Wise & Foolish Builders (Matthew 7: v24 – v27) the wise man built his house on the rock, the rain poured down and the rivers and streams rose yet the house did not fall. However, the foolish man built his house on the sand and when the rain poured down and the rivers and streams rose the house was washed away.

The images of floods and collapsed houses are fresh in our minds as we have experienced some of the worst weather in documented history over the last few years. Do we want our lives to stand firm during the trials and tribulations of this world or are we putting our faith in the wrong things, which can easily be washed away?

If we put our faith in Jesus and trust in his unfailing love for us we can be assured that he will support us through the difficult times and grant us eternal life with him in heaven.

Historical Footnote

by Roger Bingham

CORONATION DAY 60 YEARS AGO

The week of 2 June was deemed by meteorologists to be the time least likely to be wet - despite the fact the D-Day on the 6 June nine years earlier had been delayed by stormy weather. But when Coronation day dawned on 2 June 1953 it was cold and raining. Up in the Lakes village sports were abandoned, and there were floods at Sedbergh where the deluge never let up for a moment. Locally, by the time the public emerged from cramped viewing round flickering televisions, it was only drizzling - so outdoor events went ahead, except at Old Hutton where children's events were cancelled on account of measles. Holme's indoor programme included a pigeon, rabbit and goat show.

Burton's celebrations were well-supported and reported, so that a snap shot is provided of village folk of two generations ago. "The bells of Burton Parish Church rang out on the morning of Coronation Day. In the afternoon there was a fancy dress parade. After the singing of 'All People that on earth do dwell' and the National Anthem the procession proceeded to the field for judging of the costumes and the sports for children and adults. Tea was enjoyed by 400 people.

The sports were judged by Messrs. Pemberton, Thompson, J Crayston and Seward, and the fancy dress by Mrs M Ball, Mrs Caunt, Mrs Hargreaves, Mrs Winstanley, Mrs Hewitt, Mr and Mrs Coward, Mr and Mrs Walton, and Mr and Mrs Robinson.

Winners of the Fancy Dress were Mesdames Illingworth, ? Clarkson (original); Mesdames B Dobson Casson and Willan (pretty); P. Wilding, Elizabeth Barber, P. Saule, Anne Hodgkinson, A. Fawcett, Catherine Barber, T Wright, D. Bayfield, A. Park, Ann Asbridge, Anthony Asbridge, L. Conway, Judith Casson, Charles Wildman, J. Thompson, ? Dockwray, ? Newsham, ? Philipson, J Crayston and ? Wilton took part in the tableau 'Coronation Rag Time Band' and 'N*r Minstrels', with the wagon driven by Mr J Philipson.

The prize winners for the best decorated prams were Mrs P. Cummings, Mrs F. Casson and Mrs B Dobson; for the best decorated house Mrs Hayton, Mrs E Crayston and Mrs H Casson; and for the best decorated business premises The Mossdale Cafe and Mr P Cummings. The judges were Messrs. Robinson, Foster and Harrison.

In the evening a dance was held in the National School with more than 200 people having supper. The MC's were Messrs. Tomlinson, Graves and Wright with music by Mrs. R.J. Walton. The Coronation Committee were in charge of the day and the whole village was exceptionally well-decorated despite the unsettled weather conditions."

N.B. Some names were indecipherable in the damaged Westmorland Gazette report, so I would be grateful if spellings and omissions could be corrected.

Above all it would be nice to know how many of us are still around who helped celebrate Coronation Day - sixty years ago this month.

Burton W.I. NEWS

At their May Meeting Burton WI discussed and voted on the Resolution for the AGM. This was followed by a rather unusual talk on North Country Folklore by Peter Watson. At our June Meeting the Rev Carole Marsden's talk is entitled 'Is it true, Miss?'

The competition for a Cat ornament was won by Hilda Boldy with Linda Green second. Ann Rigg won the raffle.

Burton Memorial Hall News

Thank you to everyone who came and supported our May fund-raising events, and thank you also to the members of the Tennis Club and the Burton Singers for sharing the proceeds of their events with us. The Hall still has much work to do, both in improvements, and to put right the daily wear and tear and accidental damage which occurs to fabric, fixtures and fittings. This ongoing expenditure means we are planning new events, and the next of these will be a Strawberry Saturday in July. So, please make a note of the date and come along and indulge in a feast of strawberriness!

GRUMPY OLD OCTOGENARIAN BOWS OUT

AN OPINION'S LAST WORD ON THE SUBJECT

A.O. has been taken aback by the number of BN readers who have expressed their regret that she will no longer be writing her column, and I thank them with surprise, and, to tell the truth, some gratification. Because the truth is that I have always felt a surge of affection for all those half-recognised faces who lurk behind our village doors, and whom I have no other means of communicating with.

I wrote my first column for the Nov. issue in 2001. I have written during the reign of four Parish Clerks, and numerous Parish councillors, and I don't think a single PCllr has outlasted me. I don't think a single one of them was sitting at the tables when I first sat uncomfortably balancing my reporter's pad on my knee and jotting down notes which had the surprising effect of infuriating them all!

It has been a rocky ride from time to time, with one P/Chairman threatening to sue, and numerous jibes at what should have been very uncomfortable meetings. But for some reason they never really upset me. And this was probably because I always had the support of the BN Editorial Cttee. I particularly would like to thank dear Dr Harold Gunson, sadly no longer with us, who as Treasurer of BN once put all his expertise into getting us out of what should never have been a tricky situation.

Why did I write A.O. in the first place? Because Janet Alderson, Parish Clerk at the time, asked me to, and because the PC reports were so boring. But democracy is not boring. It is a special thing that we have to respect and cherish. It has been honed over a few hundred years in this country – not so many years when you stop to think – and when you reach my age a century doesn't seem so much after all. We take democracy for granted, and expect those elected – or often not actually voted in – to get on with it. And they in their turn expect to be left to handle matters without critical comment. PCllr Boddy once said to me, "You just like to see us get our knickers in a twist, don't you?"

Of course twisting of knickers plays its part. But my aim was to show how there was interest in meetings. If you attend one you don't just get the Minutes; you get all the nuances and little asides that tell more than final motions passed. One Chairman insisted that only the motions passed need be minuted. Which meant there was little record (except An Opinion) of other discussion or disagreement.

Another important omission initially was Public Forum. It was innovative (though of course parishioners have always been able to attend PC meetings.) But issues raised were not recorded by the Clerk at first. I particularly valued this institution because people quite inexperienced, but with strong feelings about something, could come to meetings to present their problem. I squirmed often on their behalf, because they could be shy and apprehensive. Yet here they were using the very system that is so important and so little used.

For some time the Forum was only covered by A.O. in BN, and this, and the Police Report were incorporated by me into A.O. The Police now circulate this more widely and A.O. takes no credit for this. It can be found elsewhere in BN.

Over the years I have had to approach Parish Clerks on many occasions and they have always been helpful, saving me from many pitfalls. But above all I would like to thank Peter Smith for his help and encouragement. We circled each other with great suspicion at first, but it wasn't long before I began to appreciate his diligence and sheer dependability. I apologise to him for the many times I must have interrupted his weekend breaks with requests for info that many writers would have had at their fingertips anyway. I can hardly believe he said such kind things about my writing in the May issue of BN, but I am very grateful and quite bowled over that he did so.

As for my fellow reporters, who I came to regard as mates, who sat beside me at the "Press Table", I shall miss their company. Joyce had to resign due to ill health. Many times Kathryn took her place. So thank you, Kathryn and Joyce. Viva the Fourth Estate.

Changes at Burton News

We are saddened to confirm that An Opinion has finally retired her reporter's notepad and pen and will no longer be entertaining us with her observations from the parish council's monthly meetings. A.O.'s sharp, witty and sometimes irreverent commentary has long been the most popular column in BN, and her stamina at sitting through a huge number of sometimes long-winded meetings has gained our admiration and respect. Her reportage will be much missed by us all and she will, as we know only too well, be a hard act to follow. We are pleased to say though that Anne Craig, the author of An Opinion, is not leaving the BN team, she remains a member of the Editorial Committee, and we hope to persuade her to write for BN occasionally - her much-loved Roper stories will no doubt feature, as may other items in her inimitable style.

We are also losing the regular column Outdoors, by David Craig. This has been a monthly feature since the birth of BN, and has brought us a whole range of observations and stories based on David's love of being outdoors. Whether it was tales of climbing, or walking with Anne and their dogs, exploring locally or further afield, they have been a joy to read and will be much missed also. David is also remaining on the Editorial Committee. He has told us he feels it is time for a change but, like Anne, he will still write occasional articles for BN.

We must also report the loss of our webmistress, Heather Stevenson, who took on the task of rebuilding the website, taking it from Stuart Gregory's original design to one that reflects the rapid changes in web technology, and who has managed it with a quiet unassuming efficiency for the last few years. Heather and her partner have recently moved out of the village to pastures new, so sadly she has tendered her resignation as the BN webmistress and from the Editorial Committee, despite us all saying we'd be delighted to have her stay as an honorary Burtonian! The grateful thanks of the Committee go to Heather for all her work on the website.

We should also like to record that we were most fortunate to gain the services of Charis Twist as the BN Treasurer late last year. Few people seem to like being Treasurers for organisation and there is always a demand for them from village groups and societies - so we are delighted that Charis enjoys doing this task, and she brings considerable experience from her working life into the BN team, so she will, in the grand tradition of BN treasurers, keep us all on the straight and narrow!

The village name sign in the Memorial Hall

The idea for village name signs began at a Burton Parish Council meeting on 17 September 1953. The Minutes read, "The Clerk is to obtain an estimate of the cost of name signs for the North and South approaches to the village."

On 19 November, "It was resolved to purchase and have erected by the Franco Signs Ltd. Co. 2 circular reflex village name signs."

By 28 January 1954, "It was resolved to purchase 2 village name signs at a total cost of £19 17s 10d and request the South Rural District Council to erect them.", signed T J Dobson, Chairman.

On 4 March it was reported that Franco had not yet delivered them. Later it was approved that the signs would be paid for with the money left over from the Coronation Fund. This June 2013 we will be celebrating 60 years since the Coronation of Elizabeth II.

The sign now in the Memorial Hall is the original one from the south end of the village. The northern one, shown in a photograph in the WI scrapbook, disappeared some time after 1965.

Pots of Silver

Local potter Wyn Abbot, whose studio is at Greenlands Farm Village, Tewitfield, has recently been awarded one of the two Silver Awards in the Ceramics category of the 2013 craft&design Selected Awards. A public vote determined the six finalists in each of six categories, then specialist invited judges, together with the craft&design panel, subsequently assessed the work of the finalists to establish one Gold Award Winner, two Silver Award Winners and three Finalists in each category. Wyn works in clay, creating stunning sculptures which are RAKU fired and hand thrown stoneware pottery, inspired by a lifelong interest in ancient cultures and their beliefs and customs. In particular her work is inspired by Native American, Mayan, and Pre-European cultures.

"Even though Dalton Woodland Burial Ground only opened in 2011 it is clear that Francis and the staff there are doing a great job," said Rosie Inman Cook, manager of the Natural Death Centre. "Time and again, families mentioned how kind and compassionate they were, and that is what The People's Awards are based on - the human touches that make all the difference at a time of great sadness."

"We are very excited about winning this award," said Francis Mason-Hornby, Registrar at Dalton. "We have had nearly 40 families choose Dalton Woodland Burial Ground for a loved one since we opened and it's so encouraging to know that we have been able to help them in some way."

Indigo FM takes on the big boys...

Indigo FM radio station was singled out for special praise when it came up against media giants at a North West awards ceremony.

Although pipped to the title of 'Best Radio Station' at the inaugural Prolific North Awards, judges took the unusual step of giving Indigo 106.6fm a 'highly commended' prize for what they called 'excellent local community engagement.'

The community station, which is based in Kirkby Lonsdale, came second to Manchester's XFM but beat Capital FM, a commercial station which also broadcasts in the city.

Judges said Indigo, a not-for-profit operation run by Paul Broadbent along with a team of volunteer presenters and assistants, some of whom live in Burton, was 'the definition of a local community radio station'.

As one of just four UK venues for the 10th Anniversary World Tour of the internationally renowned Wadaiko TOKARA taiko drumming group, The Heron was disappointed that the two performances planned for 10 and 11 May had to be postponed.

The majority of ticket holders have rebooked but, due to the changed dates, there are some seats available for selection and booking only via our website, as BN goes to press these were 6 for Friday and 29 for Saturday.
www.ticketsource.co.uk/theheron/events

Unless shown otherwise, performances commence 7.30pm. Doors open 45 mins before every performance. The Box Office is now closed for the Summer. Please book online or pay at the door.
