heavily subsidised and incredibly inefficient. It's more about profit than renewable energy. Landowners and developers will make huge sums of money through this scheme'.

Dear BN,

WHAT WILL THE PROPOSED WIND FARM MEAN FOR BURTON IN KENDAL?

Over 40 villagers met in the Village Hall on 23 August to discuss the impact of EON's proposed wind farm which is to be built between Burton in Kendal and Kirkby Lonsdale. It was a very positive meeting during which many people learned about the threat to the village and its landscape for the first time.

Phil Dale (from the local opposition group, Landscape First) confirmed that EON plans to build 9 x 110 metre turbines (similar to the ones on Caton Moor) and that a full planning application is likely to be submitted at the end of 2010.

EON have held exhibitions in Kirkby Lonsdale, Hutton Roof and Whittington but have missed out Burton in Kendal even though the village is very close to the proposed site. The development will have a big impact on Burton if planning permission is granted not least because Burton will be the main access route for the site before, during and after construction. Traffic will increase and roads will need straightening and widening. On top of this, the views from the crags which many of us enjoy will be devastated.

'We're not against wind farms' said Phil, 'but they are Developers are targeting the Lune Valley because it falls between the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales National Parks which have more protection from a planning perspective. At the moment there are over 20 wind farm schemes affecting the valley between Lancaster and Tebay.

The site proposed is surely an inappropriate site. The development will damage for ever an important landscape and will have a serious and adverse effect the communities surrounding the site including our community.

Over the last 6 months groups have been formed in surrounding villages to oppose this development and there is strong support from local MP's.

As a result of the meeting a local campaign group has been formed in Burton to keep villagers up to date with progress and to help those who want to object when the time comes. If you want to get involved or find out more information either contact me on 01524781405 or, if you have internet access go to www.landscapefirst.com where you can register.

Outdoors

My favourite seat in the entire neighbourhood is a split limestone boulder on the northern shoulder of Burton Knott. The path up to it from the Clawthorpe/Lupton road was mostly grassy thirty years ago. With growing use it became an earthen trod. A few weeks ago it looked less used - or else it was just that a recent deluge had effaced people's footprints.

Late-summer flowers embroidered the lush grass on either side. Eyebrights twinkled their wee white stars. Tormentils shone butter yellow. Knapweeds glowed, some royal purple, some mauve. The harebells which do well on spare soil up there were a quiet blue like distant islands. Sloes like black grapes nestled in a dell amongst whin and bramble.

'My' boulder is like a pair of buttocks, gnarled ones with fretted sides.- The top is perfectly smooth and you can rest your feet on moss so deep that no hard ground can be felt under it. I used to sit here when I was planning a book about 'great rocks': Uluru (Ayers Rock) in the red centre of Australia; Macchu Pichu, the Inca citadel on a granite ridge high above the Urubamba in Peru; canyons in Arizona which have whole villages carved out of their sides, the adobe shells still there after a thousand years; and Land's End, and Cape Wrath, and... I got to all those places; wrote the book; it flopped... Never mind, the sweep of it all is still with me: thinking about the Cape of Good Hope while looking north-east to the leonine flanks of the Howgills; thinking about Herod's rock palace on Masada above the Dead Sea while looking north-west at the Kent, just visible as a slip of grey fabric between fields near Levens, with one pewter gleam beyond Haverbrack...

This time, as I sat quietly with no great plan in mind, I heard a shout from the fields below the ridge of Farleton Fell. Fifty Friesians were grazing calmly. In twos and threes they began to file downhill towards the milking parlour. Had the farmer called them and they were walking home obediently? No, there he was - a small brown figure walking uphill, then round the back of the herd to round up two reluctant animals.

It all looked just right for the end of a day in Westmorland. It had happened hundreds of thousands of times before. There was nothing wrong with it. I don't think I'm being sentimental. Of course a hill farm isn't Utopia. The price of milk to the producer is forced down by the supermarkets. The next generation may want nothing to do with the family farm. There was still a solid goodness about what I was looking at.

Not long ago on the 'Grumpy Old Men' programme an actor well-known for his coffee commercials remarked drily, 'What is the countryside for?' Well, it is certainly for milk and butter and cheese, and wheat and barley and oats, to go no further. And it is also for the sheer oxygen of fresh air and live things growing in their own sweet way.

WANTED! VOLUNTEER STOCK CHECKERS

Are you interested in conservation grazing? Would you like to be part of a team of volunteers checking animals grazing on Burton Fell and Dalton Craggs?

Morecambe Bay Conservation Grazing, with support from Cumbria Wildlife Trust and the Forestry Commission, has been awarded funding to train a small team of people to act as volunteer stock checkers on these Nature Reserves. You will only need to find and check the animals, not carry out any "hands-on" activities with them.

If you would like more information or would just like to have a chat about the project please phone Ruth Dalton on 01539 816223 or email ruth@rbst.org.uk

Roger Reports...

'It's the economy stupid' which, as in every financial sphere from household to the government's budget, continues to dominate public life - though whether all the agencies responsible for the nation's living beyond its means will be able to rein in accustomed expenditure remains to be seen.

On South Lakeland the long debate is continuing about the proposal to increase the pay of the Chief Executive from the previous holders' £86,000 to over £100,000. Some believe that the higher sum is the rate for the job compared to other similar authorities; but others, including me, argue that CEO's pay scales were set before the spending crisis hit us and that, as the employees in the 'paid service' are being reduced, the top person has less responsibility and therefore should have lower, rather than higher, pay.

I also remain opposed to SLDC's spending money to replace the century-old free New Road car park in Kendal with an exhaust fuel-wafted public 'park'.

On the county council the figures are much higher, though the debates about cuts have, so far, been less fierce. Altogether Cumbria spends £860m pa, of which £400m is 'pass-ported' to schools. It has been suggested that that schools budget might be reduced by £50m. The cuts, however, might affect planned building schemes as at QES, Kirkby Lonsdale, rather than class sizes or subject teaching.

Generally, it is anticipated that the coalition government's spending review to be announced on 25 October will require cuts, over four years, of between 25% and 40%. As 80% of spending is on staff costs, compulsory redundancies (which initially involve extra costs) are likely. Already 45 staff from the discontinued North West Development Agency have been made redundant.

Greater cuts are expected in CAPITA which, among other tasks, care for highways. By and large it is hoped that basic maintenance on the principle of 'pot holes yes, new bye-passes no' will continue, as will the upgrading of gritting etc which resulted from last winter's severe weather.

Fewer cuts in care for elderly and needy people are expected (except perhaps regarding bureaucracy) but some anomalies might be tackled. For instance children from less prosperous homes are entitled to an Educational Maintenance Grant to cover, among other expenses, transport to school, but they are also entitled to free bus passes - one or other subsidy could, perhaps, be cut.

A recent survey of deprivation amongst pupils based on Free School Meals (FSM) take up indicates the relative prosperity of south eastern Cumbria. One Carlisle school has 59% FSM take up compared to Burton Morewood's 6%, Holme's 5% and Milnthorpe's 9%. On school balances our local schools are satisfactory and Morewood, which had a small deficit in 2005-2008, had a surplus of £2,567 for 2009-10.

The happiest school news is that our main secondary school QES at Kirkby Lonsdale obtained the best results ever with 77% of pupils gaining five grade C or above GCSE passes, including 86% in English and 84% in Maths. The A Level results were also excellent and the VI Form now has 394 students (including 52 who previously attended other schools), roughly the same number as all QES pupils when I became a governor 30 years ago. The school roll is now 1,480 which, with 203 staff, gives QES a higher population than Kirkby Lonsdale town or of Burton!

A small row resulted from a Sunday Telegraph report that Cumbria County Council is spending £390,000 on union officials. As only 30% of county employees are in a union, compared to 80% 30 years ago, it can be argued that the cover for staff absent on union business should be paid for by the membership. But would this be fair?

Finally the county council and the districts are fighting off a government plan to incorporate our economic development in a North West Local Enterprise Partnership which will replace other 'quangos'. We want a single Cumbria LEP to deal with our distinct rural, tourist and nuclear interests.

Best wishes,

Roger

An Opinion...

Observing the goings-on at the Parish Council meetings

ELECTRIC BLANKETS - NO GREAT SHOCK

Readers of last month's BN including A.O. herself, must surely have been impressed by the conscientious attention to detail recorded in the Parish Clerk's Minutes, which stood in for her "An Opinion". Thanks, Peter. But where was A.O. herself? Together with "Outdoors", she was disporting in Keswick at a production of Jo Orton's "What the Butler Saw". What a clever and funny farce it is, immaculately performed by the Rep Company.

It is tempting to compare it to a Parish Council meeting except it would be difficult to have PCSO Bullock descending through the ceiling on a precarious wire ladder, (though no doubt she would be up for it.) But could Police Sgt Sizer be persuaded to rush naked across the Council Chamber clutching his helmet to his most private parts? And would our single female PCllr linger modestly behind the curtains popping up now and then to have her say? And who would play the part of the dubious psychologist? The possibilities are many. Disgruntled Burtonians who have read so far may be reflecting that poor Jo Orton, the playwright, came to a sticky end. Alas, dear readers, A.O.'s talents are too meagre to merit such desserts.

But all that's a digression. Here's some of what happened on 16 September. It was a short meeting, lasting about an hour.

Fire and Rescue

PCllrs received a Fire and Rescue report from Deputy Location Mgr Callum Graham (has he been up- or down-graded since the time he rightly corrected A.O.'s claim that he was Fire Station Sgt? – Last time he was Fire Station Mgr. "Location Mgr" sounds decidedly grander, though the Deputy part may be a bit of a downer.)

A.O. wasn't sent a copy of this report. Nevertheless she can advise Burtonians that they can have their electric blankets checked for free on 4 October in Kendal (details elsewhere in BN.)

Police Report

PCSO Jessica Bullock was present, and PCllrs expressed appreciation of this. She reported there had been a daytime burglary on 3 September from a house in Burton – possibly connected to another house break-in at Lupton the following day. If anyone saw anything out of the ordinary, she asked them to be in touch.

Village Parking

This was discussed further on in the meeting, but it was also brought up by a member of the public in Public Forum. He had also written to the PC about his concern re lack of parking in Burton. It was agreed that a working party should look into the matter and present its findings at a later date.

Those Verges (Again!)

A member of the public expressed concern about the overgrown state of the verges on the west side of the A6070 towards Clawthorpe. Surely both hedges and verge could be cut back more severely, to at least provide the possibility of a refuge for pedestrians from oncoming traffic? It seems this isn't the task of the Lengthsman, it's up to SLDC. The clerk will look into the matter.

End of public forum.

Remembrance Sunday

A wreath will be contributed, and a donation of £50 sent to the British Legion. This is an increase of £10 on previous years.

What else?

1. A couple of negatives: (a) the PC agreed they don't wish to contribute to the SLDC review of the Statement on Licensing Policy (b) or to comment on the SLDC review of Polling Places. They're happy to keep them as they are.

2. Road markings. PCllrs will confirm these with CCC after a walk-through.

3. Contingency Plan (Major Emergency.) All will be revealed in the PC Newsletter.

4. The new road surface on Main Street. This has raised the level of the road above the dropped pavements in places, leading to flooding of pavements and, in some cases, water entering properties. Now it is fair to say the PC was warned of this possibility, before work started, by a member of the public. The attitude of at least one PCllr was, roughly speaking, that that was just hard cheese. Not much comfort to those who now have to cope. The Clerk is to inform Capita of the situation.

5. The Hutton Windfarm. Some PCllrs had attended the meeting at BMH to hear the case against the proposed erection of wind turbines at Longfield Tarn.

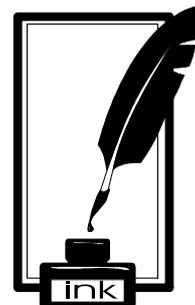

Access to the windfarm via Burton had raised concern, they reported, especially during the building period. They were also concerned about the size of the turbines. The PC Chairman pointed out that no action can be taken till the plans are formally presented by EON. Note: Eon have delayed presenting the plans while further research into noise levels is conducted.

6. The Fun Run. Some good news: the Fun Run, reported PCllr Boddy (for the Rec. Trust), had been a great success and raised around £1000 much-needed funds for the Trust. Fun was had by all – except for the odd grouchy motorist – or even, as A.O. witnessed, an irritable cyclist. The inclusion in the finishers' goodie bags of a small tube of toothpaste was a master-stroke. You could clean your teeth after devouring the chocolate, as A.O. pointed out to her grandson.

A.S.

ANNUAL 10K ROAD RACE & FUN RUN

50 runners and 23 'fun' runners enjoyed good weather for Burton-in-Kendal's annual 10K road race and fun run last Sunday. The event, sponsored by Aggregate Industries Ltd, owners of nearby Holme Park Quarry, raised over £1000 to keep the village's outdoor multi-use games centre, tennis courts and crown green bowling green open for the coming year.

The raffle made £80 which will be presented to the North West Air Ambulance. Runners and spectators enjoyed bacon butties and refreshments including home made cakes and freshly picked victoria plums.

Raffle and spot prizes were all donated by local businesses and the event was organised by Iain & Sarah Hunter

District & County Councillor, Roger Bingham opened both events and Steve Rigby, Manager at Holme Park Quarry presented the prizes.

The 10K race was won by John French with a time of 35mins 07secs.

First female home was Melanie Ryder with a time of 42mins 07secs.

17 year old Melanie also won the Under 21 prize.

The Fun Run was won by Callum Hartley with a time of 18mins 00 secs and first female was Chloe Halhead with a time of 19mins 50secs.

Challenge 25

Following on from a series of cases where pubs have been caught supplying alcohol to under age persons, we've been asked to remind people about the changes to the law which come into effect on 1 October.

Under the new rules, a premises licence holder or club premises certificate holder must make sure that their premises has in place an age verification policy for the sale or supply of alcohol to anyone who looks under the age set in their policy.

Schemes such as Challenge 21 and the more recent and widely used Challenge 25 mean that young adults will need to show their photo ID each time they purchase alcohol - even if they've already shown it earlier in the same day at the same place. ID's usable are passports, photographic driving licences, or a card bearing the PASS (Proof of Age Standards) hologram. (See www.pass-scheme.org.uk for how to obtain one.)

From 1 October it becomes an offence for any licenced premises not to request sight of a proof of age document for young adults, so don't be surprised when you're asked for this in local shops, pubs and restaurants. Make sure you carry yours with you!

Crown Green Bowling Club

It doesn't seem like 12 months have passed since the last time I typed an end of season report about the exploits of the bowling club, the playing season seems to get shorter every year, or maybe it's just me!

Kendal League

After being relegated to Division 3 this time last year, we were a little disappointed, and determined to get back up as soon as possible. Well, it's taken 12 months! Next year we will be back playing in Division 2, and pushing for a place with the elite teams in the league.

Morecambe League

Once again, we have attained promotion (as runners up), from the 3rd Division, and as with the Kendal team we will be going all out to gain a place in the top division. That's 5 promotions in 5 consecutive seasons!

Rural League

A good start was marred by a 4 or 5 match blip around half-way through the season, but still a very respectable top 6 finish. Well done to all. Unfortunately eliminated from the "Skidmore" Trophy at the first hurdle by just 4 aggregate points... next year eh!

Lune Valley Floodlit League

At the time of writing we are halfway through a 10 game season. We have won all 5 matches so far and hope to be promoted to the top division next year.

The AGM will be held on 8 December at 7.30pm, at BMH.

It just remains for me to thank all those who put so much effort into the running of the club, with greenkeepers, gardeners, cooks, teachers, etc. There are too many to list individually, so thank you one and all.

Finally, my thanks go to the officers and committee of the club, without whom we couldn't exist.

Historical Footnote by Roger Bingham

SCHOOL RECORDS

Historians use two basic records for their work: primary and secondary sources. Primary sources are documents like letters, wills and deeds. Secondary sources are generally published accounts like books, directories and newspapers. Primary sources as well as providing a factual foundation also give something of the 'flavour' of the period when they were written.

A good example of historically useful deeds relate to Morewood School as they contain names of Burton's principal inhabitants of nearly 150 years ago, ancient tenancy terms like 'copyhold', topographical information like the site names and areas e.g. 'one rood', and 'period' details like social classification such as 'poor persons', 'gent', 'esq.' and 'farmer'.

Although half the pupils would be girls, women were not considered eligible to be school managers, though 'ladies' could be visitors. There are some possible errors. The site is referred to as being on Boon 'Wall' whereas other evidence indicates that the present name of Boon 'Walk' was in use at the time. Also one surname is spelt as 'Fearenside' and not as the more commonly occurring 'Fearnside'.

The main deeds (or 'indenture') relate to the conveyance of the site for the Victorian school which provided elementary and later primary education until it was demolished in 1967 (after exactly a century of use) to make way for the core of the present building.

The Public Record Office copy of the indenture was made on the 24 September 1867 between 1. Thomas Briggs of Holme, gent.

2. Bryan Waller Atkinson, Windermere, esq., Lord of Manor of Burton.

3. William Chastel de Boinville, clerk, Vicar of Burton, Edmund Geoffrey Stanley Hornby of Dalton Hall, co. Lancaster, esq., (n.b. Dalton did not become part of Westmorland for another 20 years), Charles Samuel Bagot of no. 40 Chancery Lane in City of London esq., (also of Levens Hall), John Fearenside, Henry Nutter, Isaac Nutter, Charles Leonard Nutter, and Edmund Fawcett Fearenside, all of Burton, gentlemen.

4. said William Chastel de Boinville, and William Wilson of Burton, gent, Henry Cock of Dalton, farmer, present churchwardens of parish of Burton.

Premises: all that plot of land containing one rood being part of a close of land called Boon Wall situate in Burton and now in the occupation of Edward Rooks, being in the south west corner of the said close twenty nine yards in breadth and forty seven yards and one foot in length with all appurtenances and discharged from copyhold or customary tenure as parcel of the manor of Burton - for the purposes of being applied as a site for a school for poor persons of the parish of Burton and neighbourhood. The managers shall erect a neat and comely house with out offices, conveniences and appendages (i.e. earth closets for toilets) to perpetuate the memory of Reverend Robert Morewood M.A. late vicar and to cause the residue of the plot to be laid out for play and pleasure ground and other purposes as the managers shall think fit. The said school shall be open for inspection in conformity with the order in Council of 10 August 1840, that the principal officiating minister of the parish shall have superintendence of religious and moral instruction of all scholars during school hours and may use the premises for purposes of a Sunday School; that the master or mistress must be a member of the Church of England and that managers must meet on first Monday in January, April, July and October and they may appoint a committee of not more than five ladies to assist in the management of the school and that if any of the said managers shall die, go abroad, refuse or become incapable of management then the majority shall appoint another in their place, provided the Vicar of Burton is always a manager'.

Finally the deed states that the land should be 'conveyed for a consideration of £50' which was rather cheap as it equates approximately to £5,000 in today's values.

Thanks!

Barry and Sarah wish to thank their neighbours and friends for the warm welcome to Croftlands, Neddy Hill and welcoming them into the village.

The Vicar Writes...

Fun in the Sun Burton and Holme Soccer and Netball School 2010

Forget the World Cup in South Africa. The sporting event of the year happened much closer to home. On 24-27 August, St James and Holy Trinity Churches, in partnership with SportsReach (a Christian ministry based in Carnforth), held our 8th annual Soccer and Netball School. 55 children, together with 21 coaches and other helpers from our church family, gathered at Burton school for four fun-filled and sun-filled days of the SportsReach S's: Sport, Smiles and Scripture.

Sport: On the sporting front, you name it, we did it: coaching in ball control, passing and shooting; coaches v kids games, world cup games, dribbling, penalty, six-second shoot-out competitions and the World Cup Finals themselves with some very close and tense final games!

It was so pleasing to see the children learning and then using and developing their football and netball knowledge and skills in the matches, which were all played in a brilliant spirit. Well done everybody!

The grand finale of the week was Friday evening with our awards ceremony, buffet and coaches v parents football and netball games. There was a great buzz about the place as young and the not so young interacted together.

Smiles: Thankfully no one had to be sent home for not having any fun. We had loads of smiles over the week as we played our netball and football – not forgetting the joke telling and “Amarillo” dancing competitions.

Scripture: Our theme for the week was “The Greatest Life” and in our Bible times and assemblies we looked at what the Bible tells us about Jesus – who He is, why He came and what it means to follow Him today. We saw and heard the amazing truth at the heart of Christianity: that God loves us and sent His Son Jesus into the world to live the greatest life ever lived and die and rise again to make it possible for us to have life with God now and forever – that’s the greatest life.

We had loads of fun in the sun learning about the most important thing in the universe – eternal life in the Son.

Paul

BOON TOWN PLAYGROUND

How great it was to see the newly refurbished playground being used by so many people over the summer holidays. Families were spotted having picnics, mums and dads playing and having fun with their children, the older children having games of cricket and just making the most of the new facilities. People from outside the village have even heard how nice it is and they have called to see what has been done, so we must have something good.

Then on a down side it was sad that some of the equipment has already been damaged, the cradle swing was out of action for a couple of days because parts had been deliberately removed making it unsafe to use. Also the Aerial Runway (zip wire) has been seen with more than one person on it at a time. It makes us wonder how long the new equipment will last if it carries on being mistreated, PLEASE, PLEASE can all parents remind their children to respect the playground equipment.

There was over £25,000 spent on the site through generous public donations and other funding, some of which is now no longer available. We have no more money left to fix it and everyone will then lose out.

On a lighter note, we have a belated thank you to make to Phil Shephens, who at very short notice provided a JCB so the work could be started. The Committee are truly grateful, and apologise for taking so long to acknowledge his efforts.

BURTON AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY

The next production from BADS will take place on Friday 19 and Saturday 20 November in the Memorial Hall, curtain up 7.30pm. Tickets will be £10 per person, to include two diverse one-act plays and a Hot Pot Supper in the interval and will be on sale in Burton Village Store from 1 November.

The plays will be "Helena's Husband", by Philip Moeller, which is an unusual take on the story of Helen of Troy. Written in 1915 this comedy was originally performed by the Washington Square Players at the Bandbox Theatre in New York and described in a contemporary review as "a satiric burlesque on Helen of Troy which kept the audience in gales of merriment."

Our second play of the night will be "The Great Escape", a contemporary comedy by Kirkby Lonsdale playwright, John Peel. Set in the garden of a residential home, two elderly ladies relive experiences from their long lives under the watchful eye of Matron!

In late November we will be holding auditions for the BADS PANTO (check Nov issue for date.)

We'd like to thank all those wonderful people who have donated coat hangers for our wardrobe. The response has been magnificent and we're busy filling them!

We're still looking for helpers back stage, so if anyone feels the urge to stage manage or set build or paint sets or make costumes and props, please come and see us any Monday or Thursday at the Memorial Hall - we'll be where-ever the laughter is coming from!

A Note from the Post Office

Sending Parcels Abroad this Year?

Please don't lynch me for mentioning it so soon but CHRISTMAS will be here before we know it. As the Burton News goes to press, the final dates for posting have not yet been published for 2010, but they are likely to be similar to last year's which, for surface mail, were:

- 20 October - Canada, Hong Kong, Singapore, South Africa & the USA
- 6 October - Far East (except Hong Kong & Singapore) & Middle East
- 1 October - All other non-European destinations

For those of you sending parcels abroad this year, before you go out and buy a full-sized Barbie scooter for your niece in Australia, may I remind you of the maximum sizes for sending items abroad with Royal Mail.

Maximum length for an overseas parcel is 60cm (approx 2 ft in old money!) with a maximum total of length + width + height of 90 cm (approx 3ft)
Also, the maximum weight is 2 kg

It is really easy to exceed these and then the parcel would cost a great deal more to send via Parcel Force. It is often cheaper to split a heavy parcel and send two packets. Come & ask us at the Post Office Counter for further advice.

Free electric blanket tests

Cumbria County Council's Trading Standards team, working alongside Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service, Age UK and other care agencies, is hosting free electric blanket testing - by appointment only - between 9am and 5pm at the following locations:

Monday 4 October
Committee Room 2, County Offices, Kendal

Tuesday 5 October
Methodist Church Hall, Kents Bank Road,
Grange-over-Sands

Among the common issues are problems such as defective overheating protection, exposed wires or failing insulation.

During the safety checks, qualified staff could correct minor faults or provide one replacement under-blanket per household should the blanket fail the test.

Although electric blankets have to comply with strict safety standards when they are sold, they do wear with age and can become damaged. Blankets in poor condition are a fire hazard and can put people at risk. Improper storage during the summer is one of the main reasons for blankets developing faults.

Testing is strictly by appointment only with limited spaces. For details on this please contact trading standards on the following number: 01539 713577

Editorial...

Stormy weather...

Lot of this about in one way or another, from the alternate deluge and dry days we are getting (April showers on steroids!) to wrangles over building a wind farm nearby (possible access with large turbine parts via narrow and winding lanes) to the condition of the newly laid road surface through Burton (is it going to need digging up and doing again or isn't it?) Time will tell on these things, as ever, and it remains to be seen how much of a 'storm in a teacup' they prove to be.

Power to the people.

No, not as in the 60's protest movement, but following on from the above, nobody can dispute that there is a need to look at electricity production in the UK. How many of us are aware of the local generation incentive that the government has set up - the Feed-In Tariff? Prince Charles has, and he's having one whole roof of Clarence House fitted with photo-voltaic panels, which are now much more efficient and longer lasting. Those of us with internet can find out more on the web site www.fitariffs.co.uk, and if it all sounds 'too good to be true', the hidden benefit is that pressure is relieved from the building of new power stations (a very costly and time consuming business whether nuclear or not), and perhaps will reduce the pressure for land-based wind farms too? One has to wonder if the development at the Royal Hotel would be a suitable location for a local energy farm that is a lot less intrusive than a wind turbine?

BMH Repairs & Improvements

There is much that needs to be done at the Hall and grant-funding needs to be secured for it, but we as a community will need to raise some too to ensure the Hall can go for grants. The Hall needs to sell 100 tickets for the howden jones concert on 2 October. Please do come along and support them (and the Autumn Fair the following week), they're very good and it's a very worthy cause! Tickets on sale at the Village Store, the Kings Arms, or from Anne on 781306 or Bert on 781354.
