Dear BN,

Motorist Killjoys?

With regard to the complaint to the police of children playing on the road in St James's Drive. When my family lived there, my son spent a lot of his time playing football or roller-blade hockey in the road.

Cul-de-sacs are designed for the use of the residents, as pleasant places to live, with no through traffic. I suspect the complainant was more bothered by the noise rather than the safety of the children.

When did common sense cease to prevail in this country? The police are there to prevent and correct infractions of criminal law, not to support killjoys.

There is also a large 'Children at Play' sign at the entrance to the road to warn drivers.

Dear BN,

BMH Car Park Changes

As you will have noticed (hopefully) parking at the Memorial Hall has changed and I'm already getting a few moans and groans. I recognise people used to driving in through the north gateway may not be looking out for new signs.

I would remind you the new layout is to try to improve safety, especially safety for our children, and not for the convenience of individuals. If after consideration it is felt that the clutter of more signs are needed so be it.

I would ask you all to be patient and give the scheme time to bed in.

George Isherwood,
Burton Parish Council

THANKS!

Morgan-Nichols

Barry Morgan and Anne Nichols would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who sent cards and messages on the occasion of their recent marriage (Tuesday 1 April). We have been overwhelmed by your kindness and good wishes.

Thank you also to our dear friends Helen Pateman for taking photographs on the day, and Lynn Robbins (Deputy Registrar at Kendal), who officiated at the ceremony, and who both helped to make our special day even more memorable.

A final and heartfelt thank you to Fenella and Tony at Macmillan Clare Goldsmiths who, despite it being such short notice, pulled out all the stops and created a beautiful pair of matched wedding rings for us.

PC Observations...

Reporting from the Parish Council meeting

A casual vacancy?

The April 17th meeting brought several apologies for absence, and one resignation as Ian Hunt resigned to set up the intriguing prospect of a "casual vacancy." Thoughts of J.K. Rowling's recent book with that title came to mind but although a member of the public said that an election could be held if 10 members of the community requested it, councillors looked on with disbelief that there might be 10 people interested enough to go this far. If you are interested in filling this casual vacancy, more information can be found on the Parish Council Notice Board [at the Memorial Hall] and at the local shop, but act fast as you only have until the end of the first week in May to put forward your candidacy.

Announcements from the Chairman

Chairman Mike Taylor ran through the police report (two minor road accidents, a speed check and an unwelcome door to door salesman) and drew attention to the forthcoming (May 22nd) MEP election in Burton. He also thanked Charis Twist for her valiant efforts to tidy up the small garden at the Tanpits Lane/Neddy Hill junction. Charis was present and thanked villagers who have volunteered to help her throughout the year with weeding and maintenance. Mike also said that we should look out for new road signs around the village but lamented the lack of clear road markings around the Moss Lane junction near Storth Machinery – "an accident is bound to happen" he warned. Mike also drew attention to the new one-way flow system for cars at the Memorial Hall which George Isherwood has been leading for the Council. It will take some time to settle down and No Entry signs might be needed to remind visitors that the north end of the car park is now no entry.

Dog fouling

Dog fouling is a continual problem. Some villagers are not content with leaving their dog's business on the pavement; they are apparently lobbing bits of dog poo into peoples' gardens! £75 spot fines can now be issued to offenders which apply to fouling of "land in the open air which the public are entitled or permitted to have access." John Barwell is Neighbourhood Enforcement Officer at South Lakeland District Council and his "enforcement team" will be coming to Burton over the coming weeks to take appropriate action. You have been warned. Burton Councillor Moira Rowley offered to work with John and members of the local community to weed out offenders

Rowlands prescription deliveries to the shop

Some politically correct edict has caused Rowlands (and many other pharmacies across the country) to stop delivering medicines to the Post Office from the end of this month for "data protection" reasons. All agreed that it is crazy, the loss of a vital amenity, interfering bureaucracy – Tim Farron also agrees. Apparently Rowlands are offering to deliver to people's houses but there must be someone in to sign for the medicines. Why upset a system that is working well? Letters will be written, protests made etc., but expectations of a volte-face are low.

Other matters

Planning applications reviewed, accounts approved, payments authorised, Lengthsman's Logs read as usual. A contribution to grass cutting costs by Springs View for the Recreation Trust was approved. The list of outstanding actions is now diminishing which is a healthy sign.

Burton Lunch Club

Why not think about joining your local lunch club, which takes place on the the second Wednesday of the month in the warm and welcoming environment of the King's Arms Hotel, a great place to meet, have lunch, catch-up with old friends and if you are new to the village, begin to meet new people.

An excellent menu is always available in the comfortable dining-room with a choice of four main courses, four puddings with coffee, all for £7.50p. So why not give it a whirl? ## The Talking Newspaper for Visually Impaired People

Having a relative who is partially sighted I know only too well the frustration of not being able to see well enough to read, so when I discovered that the local weekly Westmorland Gazette comes in a talking newspaper version it became a welcome addition to our weekly lives.

The arrival of the bright yellow envelope each Saturday has become one of the highlights of the week for Mum, and she enjoys being able to catch up with all the news and happenings in the area courtesy of this great free service. John Barker, Chair of the South Lakes Talking Newspaper, has written a short piece for Burton News about his team and their work... this is what he said:

The South Lakes Talking Newspaper has been in existence since 1974 and its aim is to bring local news to those suffering from visual impairment who find it impossible or difficult to read a newspaper. What the Talking Newspaper does is to take extracts from the Westmorland Gazette which are recorded and sent out on memory sticks on a weekly basis to its listeners.

For many years cassette tapes were in use, but in 2008 the change was made to digital and the recording is now made onto USB memory sticks. These are sent out through the GPO's Articles for the Blind Freepost service. When clients have finished listening, they return the memory stick in the special wallet provided.

Each issue contains a News section and a Magazine section, both about 45 minutes long. The Magazine section has mainly items of general interest and may include items on food and drink, gardening, nostalgia pieces and so on, so there is plenty of variety.

The service is entirely free, including the supply of the player. The player is very easy to use and one of the volunteers will take one to the new listener's home to explain how it works. The Talking Newspaper has over 60 unpaid volunteers who work on a rota basis, producing the Westmorland Gazette in this form throughout the year.

If you know of a family member or anyone in your community who might benefit from the service, do ring John Barker on 01539 821438 or Ian Hoyle on 01539 725913, either of whom will be happy to give more details. The Talking Newspaper is highly valued by its regular listeners who come from all over South Lakeland.

Holme & District Local History Society

The Holme and District Local History Society will be putting on an Exhibition in commemoration of the start of the First World War in the Burton in Kendal Memorial Hall on the weekend 25/26 October and in Holme Village Hall on Sun 23 November. The Society has quite a lot of archive material, especially concerning the soldiers from Beetham, Burton and Holme who went to war including photographs, but we would be very interested and grateful to receive memorabilia either of local interest or more general material about the events of summer and autumn 1914. We acknowledge a grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund to enable us to put on this exhibition which will concentrate on local aspects of the mobilisation.

If you have any material or memories relating to WW1 which you would be willing for us to use, please contact either Kath Hayhurst for Burton (01524 781613), Geoff Pegg for Holme (01524 781184) or Dorothy Spencer for Beetham (01524 781540).

BADS

news

Unfortunately due to a multitude of commitments your village drama group is unable to give you the promised Murder Mystery in June. This means that for the first time since 2003 there will be no BADS performance this year.

However fear not we will be back with a super duper pantomime in January. "Oh no you won't, oh YES we will!" This will be the first panto BADS have performed for about 20 years so we have roped in the multi-talented Simon "Yakkers" Yaxley, you know him off t'Lakeland Radio breakfast show, to direct it for us, I'm sure it will be a show not to be missed.

Later in 2015 we are planning to do a full 3-act comedy which I know always goes down well with our wonderfully loyal and appreciative audiences. Keep a lookout in Burton News for further updates, we like to keep you posted.

Vicar's Letter...

Come In or Keep Out?

"Can I come to church?" someone once asked me. "What do you mean?" I replied. "Is it alright for anyone to just turn up?" I was surprised. I had not guessed that anyone would think they needed permission to come to their local church. But I suppose we might wonder if it is alright to "just turn up" at the tennis club, the auction centre or to a council meeting, and perhaps the church seems similar – a club with uncertain entry conditions.

First let me assure you. If you came to any service in the village church someone would greet you, make sure that you had somewhere to sit and answer any questions you had. Our services are straightforward and we expect that there will always be some present who are "just looking." If you brought children they would be welcome too, there are areas in the church that you could use if your child became restless, and at some services there would be a group for them to join.

"But," you may ask, "Would I be welcome at a deeper level? Would I feel awkward because I don't believe the things that you all believe? Would I not fit in because my marriage was a disaster or because I've not bothered with church for years?"

How would Jesus have received you? He was well-known as a friend to all kinds of people. Jesus had meals with the rich and powerful, but he also associated freely with disreputables. He was ready to welcome anyone, but he never left people in any doubt that they had to come on his terms. The well-off were told to stop depending on their wealth. Swindlers realised they had to pay back what they had taken. Adulterers had to change. Strong men were afraid in his presence.

And Jesus still welcomes people into His church in exactly the same way. His welcome is genuinely and freely extended to all. You are not disqualified by anything you have thought or done because he can deal with that, but Jesus still insists you must come on his terms. He must have the right to decide what you will or won't do from now on.

Welcome!

Graham Burrows

Historical Footnote...

... by Roger Bingham

BURTON'S D-DAY SUMMER

70 years ago, during the Summer of 1944, the world at war waited for, and then watched the progress of the D-Day allied invasion of Normandy. But, judging by the lack of local reports, Britain's supreme Second World War effort passed Burton by. Up to September the village's only D-Day campaign casualty was Sergeant Lewis Robinson, an old Heversham Grammar School boy, who was "gravely ill after his skull was broken while serving in the Tank Corps in Northern France." Meanwhile, another Burton serviceman, Corporal F A Ellis married in Dundee a Women's Auxiliary Air Force member, Gladys C Scott, who, unusually for wartime, had a white wedding "featuring a figured satin gown and veil."

The assault on the London area, just after D-Day, by German flying bombs and rockets led to 1,000 south country evacuees coming to south Westmorland. Their arrival imposed extra pressure on food supplies. 5,000 meals were immediately prepared at emergency feeding centres in Kendal. At the "Burton and Holme Food Office in Holme Parish Room" long queues formed during the annual distribution of new ration books, while officers dealt with newcomers who had lost their identity cards which they had to show before they could get a ration book. To eke out scanty supplies the Women's Institute staged a green salad competition won by Mrs Hayton, and publicised frugal recipes for vegetable pot roast, and potato, carrot and dripping burgers. The WI ladies also unravelled old garments to provide white wool for a collection "for vests for children in occupied Europe" organised by the Honourable Mrs Hornyold-Strickland of Sizergh Castle. But, no information was given as to how the children would get their underwear! Supervised by Mrs Kendal the WI also turned hundredweights of local soft fruit into jam. For refreshment they might have benefitted by a special offer of "Brooke Bond tea at 1/7 a lb, enough for 4 (weekly) rations."

A good harvest, especially of barley, was safeguarded when local land girls killed 199 rats in "Rat Week." During August an outbreak of Foot and Mouth Disease at Bolton le Sands led to restrictions in stock movements, so there were no local winners at Hawkshead and Cartmel Shows, which went ahead, although Burton Show had been suspended "for the duration." Sadly the farming community lost a leading member when Mr Harry Haygarth, who had lived all his life at Laypitts Farm was the victim of a railway accident at Carnforth. At Hutton Roof, farmer Ernest John Read was fined £15 for missing a Home Guard parade although he had pleaded that he was working a 90 hour week, had a sick wife and had not received notice about the change of time for the parade.

Weekly war effort fund-raising events included a Young Farmers' Red Cross Dance, a Brains Trust, Rural Pennies Collections, a Salute the Soldiers entertainment, and Whist Drives galore, while Morewood School's children raised £5:10s for Lancaster Royal Infirmary.

At both Whitsuntide and August Bank Holidays local hotels were booked up. Although petrol restrictions made "the roads strangely empty of cars", buses were packed out taking trippers to Morecambe where they could see George Roby in "Sailor George" and listen to "Henry Hall and his Orchestra." Regrettably five children aged between 8-13 were caught stealing ground sheets and sheaf knives from holiday makers' tents pitched on Farleton Knott. Other youngsters enjoyed "thrilling tussles" at the August sports in Dalton Park, while adults went to "a well-attended dance organised by the War Memorial Hall executive."

As summer ended it was announced that street lighting would be switched on as soon as "wartime mischief damage" had been repaired. Moreover, the Home Guard would be "stood down" in December. Brighter times were on the way.

YOUR VILLAGE HALL NEEDS YOU!

Burton Memorial Hall needs your help! If you have some spare time - an hour or so a month - and would like to join the Management Committee or help keep the Hall in good condition we would love to hear from you.

We have a small and dedicated band of volunteers who help keep the Hall painted, tidy the car park, and weed the grounds, but like all groups we could do with more help as we're getting worn out doing it alone! The Hall provides all the equipment and materials needed - we just need extra man- and woman-power to wield paint brushes and do all the little extra jobs that we would otherwise have to pay people to do.

By doing them ourselves we keep the hire costs of the Hall down, so it's vital we recruit more helpers. If we can't do that, and as our current team collapse with exhaustion or succumb to the demands of their families to see them at least some of the time, we will have to pay tradesmen to do the painting etc that we are currently doing ourselves.

Any time you could spare us would help us enormously - we do most of the maintenance work during the school holidays - either during the day or in the evenings, when there are few if any users in the building, but if anyone can help at other times instead we can often find windows of opportunity to get in and do some small tasks.

Over the last couple of years the Hall Committee has spent in excess of £120,000 on improvements to the building, and we would like to keep it looking good.

If you can help in any way at all, please would you give Nicola a call on 01524 784977, she would be delighted to have a chat with you!

FREE TO GOOD HOME

Many readers will remember Morland Craig, who sadly died earlier this year. He was a great scholar, and his library here and in Scotland was immense and very specialised. His collection of Encyclopaedia Britannicas are now out of date, and anyway its information is now on-line. But the information contained, and the beautiful binding of the volumes is such that, although there is no longer any monetary value in them, it is possible they may be of great interest to someone. So here's an opportunity to claim some of them, to save them from what would surely be a great shame, the tip!

The volumes take up space, so I have given a rough idea of that with some of the sets:

Encyclopaedia Britannica 1929 vols 1-24 (44ins approx)

Micropaedia vols 1-12 pub.1997 (20ins)

Macropaedia vols 1-29 pub.1997 (26ins)

Micropaedia vols 1-12 pub 1990

Macropaedia vols 1-29 pub 1990

Macropaedia vols 1-29 pub 1985

Enc. book of the year 1983 and 4 and 93-99 inc.

The entire collection comprises approx 144 vols (there are a few singles omitted in this list).

If anyone is interested in taking any of these, please phone 01524 781569.

The Burton News Editorial & Website Reports for year ending 31 December 2013

Editorial Report

The last year has seen several events and changes which have impacted on the Editorial Committee. In July Anne Craig decided to hang up her pen and notepad both in respect of the Minutes Secretary role she had undertaken for a goodly number of years, and as An Opinion commenting on the monthly Parish Council meetings. At the same David Craig ceased his Outdoors column, although both he and Anne are still providing occasional articles and have, we are delighted to report, remained on the Editorial Committee. Judith Ellis also stood down as Distribution Manager after her illness, but again remains a member of the EC and we look forward to having her back with us when she feels able to come along to meetings. Heather Stevenson our webmistress also left the EC on moving out of the village. The EC is grateful for all their work and support for Burton News.

An appeal in BN brought forth volunteers to fill their boots: Jon Taylor as Minutes Secretary, Hazel Parker as Distribution Manager, and Mary Bullimore as Webmistress, and on behalf of the whole team we would like to record our thanks and a warm welcome to all three.

From the September 2014 issue we changed to a new printing service, which has resulted in a much better standard of image reproduction overall, in addition to being slightly less expensive than the previous printer for more pages per copy!

We have once more retained the services of our Auditor, Nigel Taylor, whose guidance and support for the Treasurer and the Committee has been invaluable, and for this we thank him.

All issues were 32 pages except Feb (24 pages) and March & April (28 pages), which makes for a good balance of copy and adverts, with the December issue including January events.

We are fortunate to have retained our regular columns by Roger Bingham (Roger Reports, and Historical Footnote) and a monthly Letter from the Vicar Graham Burrows. Edward Ellis took some excellent photos to accompany Outdoors, and we have had photos from George Robinson, the late Frank Walton, Mark Ellis, Alex Driver, David Mills, Charlie Dobson, Charis Twist and others to accompany various articles.

Throughout the year BN has offered extensive support and coverage of two major fund-raising campaigns within the village: the Wheels for Alex Campaign and the St James' Church Tower Appeal, along with a wide range of fund-raising activities for various groups and societies.

We have carried regular news & events listings from the Memorial Hall, Pre-School, Boys' Brigade, the Historical Society, the Photographic Society, the First Responders, Outdoor Bowls, & BADS. Helena Nixon has sent in a report from the W.I. each month, and we have had info from Morewood School, Cumbria Police, the NSPCC, Cumbria Wildlife Trust, Holme Park Quarry Local Nature Reserve, and AgeUK. Charis Twist provided a Village People article on Sue Woodburn and a Village Places article on Burton Morewood School. We have covered the regular big village events such as the Daffodil and Onion Shows, Children's Sports Day, the 10K and Fun Run, and the two art and craft events. Standalone articles included Paul Rossi (Rossi on the Radio); LMMES (Cinderbarrow Railway); Kath Hayhurst (Village Signs); and Reg Hesketh (The Swifts of Burton).

The Diary and Events listing are still receiving notices for inclusion well in advance of events, which we are sure is helpful for forward planning by many villagers. We continue to include some local societies who meet outside of Burton but who have village members, and we have also continued to include

- General Garden Maintenance
  - Lawn Cutting
  - Hedge Cutting
  - Planting
  - Planning

some events at nearby venues such as the Heron Theatre at Beetham. Several societies and groups have made a donation to BN as a thank you for including their regular events in the listings, and those donations have been much appreciated. Meanwhile, public donations received in 2013 were slightly down on those in 2012 but, encouragingly, the number of donors rose from 156 in 2012 to 194 in 2013.

At the year end we had 42 advertisers, and have an advertising waiting list of 10. Adverts remain a standard 1/8 page with one remaining 1/4 page exception and one 1/6 of a page.

Finally, we'd like to thank all our columnists, our auditor, all the members of the Committee who give help and advice to us as Editors, and for all the work they do in writing articles, keeping minutes, managing the advertisers and the money, and in getting the magazine distributed. A big thank you to our team of distributors who turn out come rain or shine to deliver the News. To our advertisers, and to those who support our annual appeal for donations, we owe a huge thank you: individuals, groups, events, and local businesses who financially support the ongoing provision of Burton News. And lastly but not least, to Gill and Akis in the newsagents who have carried on with being our collection point for copy for each issue. They also pass on copies to more remote villagers for us, sell BN in the shop, and hold the donation box for our annual appeal. Thank you to you all!

Co-Editors

Website Report

I took over from Heather Stevenson as webmistress of the web version Burton News in August 2013, and have followed the procedures established by Heather and our Editors. The website continues to be published in the same format and updated with a pdf copy of each issue available to read online or download. Back issues and articles dating from 2003 are available to browse. Several regular articles are also loaded separately so that readers may browse or search articles from previous issues. The website also supplies details of the Editor, and allows readers to send messages to the editor directly via e-mail or using the guestbook or contact pages.

The latest project aims to improve security by using a "captcha code" which hopefully will stop "spam" being sent to the website. Although this has not been a significant problem to date it is better to nip the potential for trouble in the bud.

Roger Reports...

from the District & County Councils

Three months after the budgets both the county and district councils are still engulfed in trying to stretch reduced incomes to provide most of our services. On the county council the Conservative/Labour coalition until 2012 and the Labour/Liberal Democrat administration since made savings of £88m. By 2018 an equivalent reduction of £196.9m will have to be made starting with a saving for £34.7m for 2015-16. This is not an easy task as all councillors have their own strong personal concerns which in my case are libraries - and the library van, home safety and rural buses.

All of us would be against any cuts in highways - although despite what everyone says - pot hole repairs are now much quicker and we've had anti-flooding measures at Neddy Hill and elsewhere completed. Also I've had the SLDC officer out to fix the site for the Station Lane sign which has been missing for two years - or more. I am currently much involved with getting the Crooklands canal bridge repaired, as if it is closed traffic problems could spread all over - even to Burton. I am told that the roundabout at the Auction Mart entrance on the A6070 (which most of us wanted at the planning stage, and then weren't sure whether we needed it when it was not put in immediately) will now be provided, as the Auction Mart's business is "leaping ahead." Thanks partly to savings on major road gritting, due to the milder winter, the South Area budget has a surplus of £300,000 which will be carried forward. I have pressed for more white lining, and for the postponed work on Moss Lane to be considered, in addition to major works on the A6070 by the quarry and at Deerslet.

I am also glad that a further £8,000 has been allocated to young persons' transport to cover the shortfall in funding for the A2BNow card which had 165 users from our area, more than any other. We are, moreover, still subsidising the Sandgate Hydrotherapy Pool in Kendal for £33,000 pa. A change is being made in the county's grants for Special Educational Needs (SEN) which will only be made where there are SEN pupils. Previously all schools got a small SEN grant even if they had no SEN pupils. Now all statemented pupils will get a flat rate of £3,000 per pupil with extra sums for further requirements. I remain, however, concerned about reported inadequate provision by the child and adolescent mental health service and for adults and children with sensory disablement especially the deaf blind.

One of the district council's savings is contributing to an improvement, as SLDC is proposing to save £77,000 by cutting out green bin collections from January to April (so I will have to take my Christmas tree to the tip) and to use the money to extend recycling to include plastic and small electrical goods like lap-tops but not freezers. Eventually this could save £250,000 in land fill charges: we'll see!

SLDC has postponed the introduction of on-street parking charges in Kendal and the big towns following protests from traders, rural commuters and shoppers.

Personally I have been very busy on two task and finish groups. One for the district council is on litter problems. Generally we have found that our villages and main market town streets are quite good but the problem areas are some housing estates and, as we all may have noticed when the verges and hedges are bare in March, along main roads and in lay-bys. Because the roads lack pavements we cannot use persons serving community punishment orders - who are often put to work on coned-off sections of the M6 - so its likely to remain a problem until ALL motorists learn the meaning of 'Take Your Litter Home' notices.

The county T&F group concerns the care of elderly people, which ties in with my role as Older Persons' Champion to enable older people to live independent lives.

Best wishes,
Roger

Thelma is a very clever woman who could have been a Professor of English but has somehow found her self teaching an Adult Literacy class. Her student's are desperate to learn to read and write with jobs and family relationships at risk. In Groping For Words Sue Townsend brings her brilliant sense of humour to a serious subject in a play which entertains and challenges "in a fine vein of comic indignation" (The Times). ### Blue Jasmine

(2013) [12A] - 1 hour 38 mins

Director: Woody Allen

Cast: Alec Baldwin, Bobby Cannavale, Cate Blanchett, Louis C.K., Michael Stuhlbarg, Peter Sarsgaard, Sally Hawkins

In this film, in which Woody Allan is most definitely back on form with his most satisfying directorial effort for years, Cate Blanchett gives an outstanding performance as Jasmine, a self-deluding, former Manhattan socialite. Fallen on hard times, she travels to San Francisco to live with her, much put upon, sister Ginger, superbly performed by Sally Hawkins. Jasmine is haughty and arrogant, addicted to drink and prescription drugs and constantly giving her sister advice on her love life, as well as haranguing anyone unlucky enough to be in earshot.

"An outstanding movie, immensely satisfying and absorbing – 5 stars"
(Peter Bradshaw - Guardian)

Friday 30 May

David Copperfield

Capturing the haunting beauty of the Yarmouth coast and bustling Victorian London, Hotbuckle use their distinctive style to tell the story of Dickens' favourite child as only they know how. Spring is here and a new season starts. If you would like to play social or competitive tennis please contact Phil Mann on 01524 782152 or take a membership form from the noticeboard on the side of the changing rooms behind the Royal.

We're pretty short of ladies for our league teams at the moment, so if you're handy with a racquet and would like to play please get in touch and I'll point you in the right direction. The league games start at the end of April.

The club pays Burton Rec Trust for the use of the courts and they're not free. If you or your children use the courts you would be helping the club to survive by joining and paying the very reasonable subs.
