EDITORIAL

It seems a long time since our September editorial. History books will tell our great grandchildren that Elizabeth II died in September 2022 in the 71st year of her reign and that her son, King Charles III, succeeded her.
Rather than grieving her parting, now that the period of national mourning is over, we can all, republicans and monarchists, celebrate a long life well lived, an example for many, and a reassuring constant in a changing world.

We can also be proud of the very British send off the late Queen was given; the pomp and circumstance that no country does better! The incredible, very long and very good-natured queue of ordinary people wanting to be part of an extraordinary event. This was planned for and coordinated by one of our own villagers, Professor Keith Still. Well done to you and your team, Keith.

Congratulations also to the WI team for their success at the Westmorland show – for details see page 5.

The Burton News donation box in the village shop has now been removed for this year. The final total for contributions via the donation envelopes and the box was £1650. Thank you to all who contributed. We have been contacted by a couple readers asking for BACS details for their contributions. These are as follows: Account Name: Burton
News, Sort Code: 01-01-60, Account
No.: 18029388

Please would readers note that letters & articles must include a valid name & address. This can be withheld from publication on request. We will not publish any anonymous letters, or material which, in the opinion of the Editorial Committee, is of an offensive or defamatory nature. BN reserves the right to edit letters & articles in the interests of magazine space.

EDITORIAL (Continued)

We have had a bit of a dearth of articles for this month's edition, possibly due to post Summer blues, and the momentous events of recent weeks. If anyone feels the inspiration to write an article for the next newsletter, we would be very happy to receive it.

After a fairly quiet Summer it was great to see our village community respond so well to the Onion Show in September. Congratulations from all at Burton News to everyone involved for staging a really enjoyable event, and raising such a superb amount for good causes - see Neil Shaw's letter for more details.

As we enter Autumn there are other excellent village events coming up for us all to enjoy in the run-up to Christmas. Do please support them, and help sustain the great variety of social events that our community has to offer.

There is also still the opportunity to get involved in the many societies and activity groups that operate in Burton. A chance to take up a new interest, or return to a past hobby. We've included some photographs of the latest art produced by the Friday Art Club - see page 6.

We came on board as editors in November 2022 so have now completed our first 11 edition cycle as an editorial team. Thank you for all the feedback and encouragement. We look forward to what the next year of editing brings us.

Enjoy Halloween!

Readers'

LETTERS

Hi, just a short note to say thank you to everyone who supported this year's Onion Show. Thanks to all our veg growers and bakers, the flower growers and jam makers, to everyone who entered anything in the show, and also to all the generous promises donated for the auction. Thanks to all the people that took part in the auction. Over £6500 was raised for some great causes. Children's entries were up on last year which was great to see.

Thanks Neil, Carl and the Onion Show team.

Burton Women's Institute Westmorland Show Success

At the Westmorland Show on September 7th & 8th, the Burton W.I. came first in the Co-operative class - entitled 'For Queen and Country'. The group entry was displayed on a 3 ft. diameter table. Symbols of England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland were featured, as well as the Queen, with her crown and corgi.

The entry was judged on staging and interpretation of the title, with points given to 3 items of craft and 3 of produce. We were not to know when we planned our exhibit that it would be our last tribute. The Institute will receive a silver rose bowl in due course, to keep for a year. Altogether Burton WI gained 4 Gold, 5 Silver, and 8 Red Stars. These were awarded for craft items, knitting, painting, collages, cakes, shortbread, scones, preserves, and chutney.

At the September WI Meeting members enjoyed a 'Share & Tell' when 6 members showed us a memento and related why it was special to them. The competition for a handbag mirror was won by Kath Heyhurst. The raffle was won by Margeret Carr.

Our October meeting is on the 13th October and includes a talk by Gordon Fletcher entitled "Safari Under Morecambe Bay". The competition is 'A Decorated Pebble'. The hostesses are Helen Dawson and Annette Donegan.

If you wish to join the W.I. please contact our Honorary Secretary, Helena Nixon on 01524 7871048

Burton Singers

Burton Singers are pleased to announce that, following our very successful summer Jubilee Concert to mark the 70-year reign of our dear departed Queen Elizabeth II, we have been able to donate £400 to Burton First Responders and £400 to St James Church for essential vestry repairs. Thank you for joining in the fun and making it such a special occasion.

If you enjoyed it as much as we did and want more, then put this date in your diaries - Saturday 17th December - when we will be reinstating our Christmas Concert. It will be another musical extravaganza of singing with plenty of opportunities for audience participation.

Rehearsals are underway but it's early days and not too late to come and join us. We rehearse at Burton Morewood School on a Monday night 7.00-8.30pm. If you are interested in looking at the audience rather than being in it, please phone Val on 07799 246415

Made in Burton

We thought it would be interesting to occasionally showcase the skills of members of our community.

The Friday Art Group meets in Burton Memorial Hall and has just updated its display of art made by members. These are on show in the Club Room of BMH and are well worth a look. We've included photos here but the black & white images don't do the skills of the artists full justice. Our online edition will show them in colour.

We would be happy to put the talents of other individuals and groups from the village on show, so do please let us know of anything you have planned.

The Word From BURTON MEMORIAL HALL

Next month we will have our Christmas Market, on Saturday 12th November. This is now fully booked and, alongside the stalls themselves, we'll have the hall's massive 2nd hand book sale, and Jan's super pop-up cafe. Doors open at 10am and the Market will be open until 4pm. Also on sale at the Christmas Market will be tickets for the Burns Night Ceilidh on Saturday 21st January next year. I know it seems a long way off, but time seems to pass by quickly in the run up to Christmas, so if you enjoy the whole Burns Night thing why not pop along and bag your tickets early!

Finally, I just wanted to mention that, although we are always busy in the evenings, we do have free slots during the day. We have a choice of main hall, reception room and club room, so we can easily accommodate groups and activities of different sizes, plus our shiny new kitchen makes the reception room an ideal location for catering for parties or your Christmas get-together. If you're interested in booking the hall please call Helen on 01524 782277 or drop her an email at helendawson1959@gmail.com.

Burton Sports & Recreation Trust - News

Well autumn has soon come round and while it's been a fairly quiet summer for the MUGA as a whole us as a committee have been busy behind the scenes making some improvements to the area.

As I type this new lights are been ordered for the bowling green, both the bowling club and the changing rooms for the MUGA are getting a lick of paint to freshen them up, and a shower has been added to the disabled toilet.

We have lots of plans moving forward as we are working toward making the area somewhere all the community can use and enjoy. Over the summer the children of the village got to enjoy some tennis lessons which went down really well and if there is demand it is something we will do again next year.

We also continue to let the youths of the village use the MUGA 5-9pm on a Friday night but this is something we are keeping a close eye on as the constant trail of rubbish and youths breaking in is starting to make us question why we are doing this. If you know your child is going up to the MUGA please can we remind you to book it - anyone caught up there without a booking will be reported.

We will be doing Christmas bingo and parties this year so look out for dates and info about them in next month's Burton News.

From the County & District Councils

Council News

There remains residual Council work for councillors like me who are still on the South Lakeland District and Cumbria County Councils. Inevitably though, most of the attention of new councillors and officers is taken up in preparing for Vesting Day –1st April 2023 when the new unitary council of Westmorland and Furness comes into being.

Already, I am shedding roles including membership of SACRE (standing advisory council for Religious Education) from which committee I was pleasantly rewarded by a presentation for my long service. I also attend, as a shadow member, SLDC's District Cabinet where opposition councillors are allowed to speak but not to vote - much like the normal practice at Parish Councils.

South Lakeland's finances have benefitted by an unexpected increase in income as our losses attributed to the Pandemic were less than predicted. The need for extra borrowing did not occur and the employees pay rise of 2% was lower than forecast. Price rises, especially regarding energy, are bound to affect this situation next year. However, another income boost will come following the completion of many new houses.

For instance, development in Ulverston alone will bring in a further £370,000 p/a in Council Tax. Most housing developments have occurred in places like Kendal and Ulverston where people want to live, rather than in villages where many building sites, allocated eleven years ago under the controversial Local Development Survey, have not been taken up. A report on homelessness was also not as bad as had been anticipated but much housing need is informally covered by sofa surfers and sharing with relatives.

The Cabinet also agreed to purchase more recycling boxes and lids which should reduce the many complaints I have received about the failure of SLDC to replace lost and/or damaged equipment. The September County Council meeting was relatively brief. We were informed that the Fire Service will continue to cover all Cumbria. The main issue concerned the unitaries taking over former authorities' debts, estimated at £30m from the Counties and £14m from the districts. A question was asked about the alleged £100,000 costs of the legal challenge made by the outgoing Labour Leader to the decision to have two unitaries rather than one, as discussed in previous council newsletters. Also, we heard that Kendal Library is to be closed for 'extensive refurbishment'. Meanwhile, I continue to pester Highways about a variety of complaints. I hope that the anti-flood works will be completed before Autumn.
Best wishes –Roger.

Parish Council Report - Anita Shelton

The September meeting commenced with a one minute silence for HM Queen Elizabeth II. The tasks carried out by the Parish Council following her death were briefly reviewed; it was agreed that, given the very short notice, the Council carried out those tasks well.

A significant part of the meeting was given to the issue of speeding through the village. The Speed Indicator Devices (SIDs) provide a huge amount of data, which needs analysis to provide relevant information. Headlines from the past 3 months included two instances of a vehicle travelling at 60mph or more – one at each SID; the average speed at each SID was below 30mph; the percentage of vehicles travelling over the limit ranged between 33% and 40%, with the average speeder travelling at between 33.8mph and 34mph. The Council will be digging deeper into the figures, and the information may be used to identify the times for police presence/speed cameras.

Vacancies for Parish Councillors remain – please give consideration to joining our Council and helping to maintain and improve our village.

HISTORICAL FOOTNOTE

by Roger Bingham

AUTUMNAL TROUBLES in 1829.

'Alarming and Destructive riots in Manchester', 'an increase of drunkenness among the lower orders', fierce religious disputes, youth crime, pay cuts, fatal accidents, and miserable Autumn weather characterised by 'dull clouds with cold north winds' were just some of the local troubles reported by the Westmorland Gazette in 1829. There was, however, a good Onion Show and over 40 cart loads turned up at Kendal Market where the onions were sold at 1s to 1s 6d a stone. Nationally the biggest issue was the passing of the Catholic Emancipation Act which gave the vote to Roman Catholics. 'No Popery' riots took place in London and other cities and in South Westmorland a Protestant Defence League was formed. In Burton the Church of England still held sway despite a regularly printed advert asking for 'the creditors of the late Rev Henry Sill to meet at the house of Mrs Agnes Burrow, The Royal Oak, Burton in Kendal'.

Locally, the magistrates imposed a year's imprisonment respectively on Mary Cook of Carnforth for 'being a lewd woman', on 12 years old Mary Hall for stealing a pair of shoes and on Elizabeth Smith for 'passing off false money'. Elizabeth was allowed to take her baby to gaol but her other children 'would be cared for' - in the Workhouse. Inconsistently, Richard Mackereth, also got twelve months to stay in what was described as 'his old home at the House of Correction' (Kendal) for swindling £27. This sum compares with pay cuts for farm servants at the Michaelmas Hiring Fairs held where, for six month's work 'Good Men' got £5 to £7 Women

£2:10s to £3, 'strong lads at less than a shilling a week' and 'young girls for anything'.

Burton's most sensational news was reported in the Lancaster Gazette on the 19th August: 'the dwelling -house of Mr Page, of Clathrop (sic), was broken into by three men, who knocked Mr Page down and forced him to be quiet; fastened the housekeeper and a girl in their bedroom and then ransacked the house. They stayed three hours and then took their departure. They had blackened faces and took his sovereigns and silver ware'. Apparently they were never caught. 'Yeoman' John Page lived at Pear Tree Cottage, Clawthorpe, which is now called Sunny Glen. The ultimate fate was described of a Burton Labourer John Linsey who 'came to his death whilst attending to his usual avocation at Holme Park Quarry. He was undermining a huge piece of rock when a considerable portion of it fell upon his head and so much crushed it as nearly to sever it from his body. The poor man was heard to exclaim as the stone was falling " Oh! Dear Me". 16 persons were on hand but were insufficient to raise the stone by the smallest degree; so as to admit the poor man's head being moved from the ponderous load so that the only recourse was to break the stone, which was done as quickly as possible. The stone when in one piece was 8 feet long, by 8 feet broad, and upwards of four feet thick and would weigh nearly 10 tons. The unfortunate man has left a widow and three children to lament his loss, and who are totally unprovided for; likewise four children by a former wife. An inquest was held before Robinson Cartmel, Esq., Coroner, and a verdict of Accidental Death returned'.

A Poem shared by a Reader

We were contacted by a Burton resident, who asked if we would print this extract from a poem by by Kahlil Gibran (1883-1931), and are happy to oblige. We hope you enjoy it, The Editors.

On Children

*Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit,
Not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.*

Burton-in-Kendal Swifts Count 2022

Overall, the numbers of swifts recorded have been similar to previous years. The highest count of 30 swifts overhead was on August 7th at 9.00pm, but this is only an indication. For example, in 2021 Bryan counted 23 and in 2019 he counted 50.

Close and patient observation of nest sites is our best guide. This year swifts entered at least 20 sites, last year at least 18 and in 2019 at least 24 sites. Some new sites became available to replace those lost. To be reasonably certain that a site is in use, it is best to watch intently for an hour before dark, when they return to their nests for the night.

The prospects for swifts in Burton are good, but not guaranteed. There are many suitable high buildings in Burton where swifts have not been seen because access is not available. A permanent solution is to build swift bricks into walls during renovation.

The erection of well designed swift boxes can also help. Where sites are already in use and renovations are necessary, leaving small holes, such as we have seen at The Royal Hotel Cottage and in Cocking Yard, helps to keep them open.

New housing offers new opportunities as at Oak Court (behind The Royal). The new Boon Town housing has a planning requirement to incorporate swift bricks, which might be used for nesting next year.

We can look forward to seeing the swifts returning each May, knowing that nest sites are here for them, after their hazardous journeys to and from southern Africa.

To observe videos of swifts in their nests take a look at Sedbergh Community Swifts on the internet.

For nest box design and other information go to <https://actionforswifts.blogspot.com/>

These are just a few of the internet sites with useful information.

Vicar's Letter...

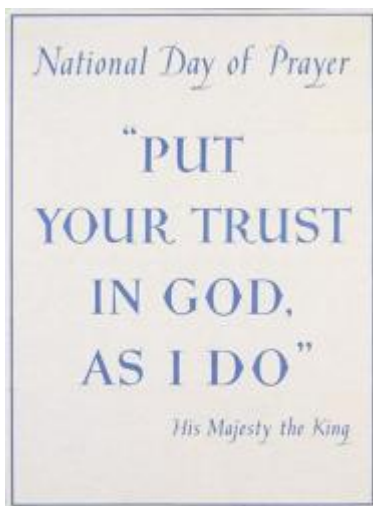

The King's Call

Dear Friends,

A queue snakes across the wide pavement as people wait patiently to enter Westminster Abbey, but they have not come for a royal funeral. The old grainy photograph shows large numbers on Sunday 26th May 1940 answering the call of King George VI for a National Day of Prayer.

People filled churches across the nation because hundreds of thousands of retreating British troops trapped on the French coast at Dunkirk desperately needed to be evacuated before the advancing German forces overwhelmed them. Winston Churchill would later call the rescue of 338,000 soldiers 'the miracle of Dunkirk' and a Day of National Thanksgiving was called on Sunday 9th June.

© IWM Art.IWM PST 14795

There were several such days of prayer in our country during both world wars (and in times of trouble before then) called by kings and prime ministers who believed that we must repent of behaviour that falls short of God's good commands, that God had the power to deliver our nation, and that we had much to thank God for. The calls were heeded by a nation that believed the same things. And we have recently been very forcefully reminded that Queen Elizabeth shared the same convictions and lived by them right through into the 21st Century.

I can't call the nation to pray but I can appeal to you to consider the huge challenges we face: in our national debt, health service, schools and politics; with war in Ukraine, rising fuel and food prices and uncertain energy supply; overwhelmed by family breakdowns and our mental health crisis; having lost so much of our moral compass and our hope for the future. Do you think we have the answer to any of these problems?

"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." (The Bible: 2 Chronicles 7:14)

Please come to St James Church Burton to pray for our nation on Sunday 23rd October at 4.00pm for 30 minutes. I will not be asking you to pray out loud or to sing. I will lead in some prayers, and there will be time for silent thoughts and prayer. That's all. Do come.

Sincerely
Graham Burrows

Up for a Challenge?

To mark the accession of King Charles III to the throne, we thought you might like to try this Quiz about him - just for entertainment, no prize involved. Answers next month.

- 1 - What was the name of the first school that King Charles attended?
- 2 - In which subject did King Charles earn his 2:2 degree from Cambridge University?
- 3 - What is the name of the childrens book King Charles wrote in 1980?
- 4 - From which Shakespeare play did King Charles quote in his recent address to the nation?
- 5 - What was the name of the Royal Navy minesweeper that King Charles captained during his naval service?
- 6 - What is the name of the experimental planned community that King Charles developed in Dorset?
- 7 - In which TV soap opera did King Charles make a guest appearance in the year 2000?
- 8 - What is the name of King Charles' family residence in Gloucestershire?
- 9 - Which London landmark's proposed extension did King Charles refer to as "a monstrous carbuncle on the face of a much-loved friend"?
- 10 - What is the name of King Charles' favourite Swiss ski resort?

Kendal Snowsports Club would like to invite all to try out our slope free of charge on 2nd October 10am to 4pm. All ability levels are welcome. Ages 7yr to 70 and beyond. Equipment hire is also free of charge.

Beginners will be given a one hour lesson starting every 30 minutes by our professional team of instructors. Those already able to ski will have the main slope to hone their skills on plastic and try out our facilities. Booking is not required although beginners may have to wait for a time slot if we are very busy. The club are currently trying to organise similar instruction for snowboarders from 4 – 8pm.

Please see the website for details. www.Kendalsnowsports.co.uk. All very welcome, please join us and bring friends! Fiona Thexton

Annual Gift Subscriptions

If you know of anyone who may like to receive BN regularly each month, why not buy them an Annual Gift Subscription? For £12 within the UK they will receive a copy of BN each month (11 copies per year).

A great way for family, friends and former residents to keep in touch with what's happening here in Burton.

Anyone interested should contact BN at the address in the box on page 2.
