EDITORIAL

Hello and welcome to the November edition of the Burton News. This is, in fact, our 30th Birthday edition, the very first Newsletter having been produced in November '93 - not by the current editors, obviously! We hope that it will continue to bring a sense of community to the village and to ensure good support of village clubs and events.

We would like to offer our thanks to the Burton Singers, not just for entertaining us over the years, but also for their very generous donation of £500 from their last performance at their Summer concert. This is a good opportunity to advertise their Christmas Concert, on Saturday 16th December, which is always a fun and raucous occasion with lots of audience participation (once well oiled)! It is well worth booking your tickets.

Other events to look forward to in the hall include the Christmas Bingo nights advertised on page 9. These are all in aid of various different local charities and are on Thursday or Friday evenings until 15th December. The Hall committee have done well with their fund raising efforts towards the roof upgrade, more information on this in the Hall report P8.

All are invited also to the "Carols at the Kings" evening, timed to coincide with Santa's visit, courtesy of Carnforth Round Table. We, like everyone, are very relieved to see the King's Arms open again after such a long break and wish the new landlords(ladies) every success.

As it is November, we do need to start thinking about Christmas. Gill has included a reminder of the Christmas posting dates which include the more complicated requirements for sending packages abroad now that we have self-isolated. This is on page 12.

Also on the topic of Christmas and isolation (Okay - that was a stretch!) it would be good to think about those who struggle to feed themselves or their families over Christmas. There was a great response to the food bank request last December and it would be great if we could do as well again.

We now have 117 followers on our Facebook page. We have realised that it still needs some work to allow posts by visitors - if anyone knows how to do this, please help us fix it! In the meantime, if you do want to send photo competition entries etc, you can still do this by replying to one of our posts. We have had two entries to the Autumn competition and will keep it open for the next month to allow for more. We have included the ones we received on P 13 - hopefully these will provide inspiration!

We will be grateful if anyone who wishes to contribute news, or articles, for the December edition of BN sends their entry in as soon as possible, as we expect it to be a 'bumper edition'!

Readers' LETTERS

Long time resident of Burton, Mrs Sylvia Williams, has died peacefully in Cove House, Silverdale at the age of 98.

The funeral will be at Beetham Crematorium on Friday 10th of November at 12.30.

Philip Mann

Editors' Note: The Editorial Committee of BN were saddened to learn of Sylvia's death, and also of the recent passing of Mike Carr and Mary Norris. We send our condolences to all their families and friends.

Please be seen and be safe

Can I ask anyone who is walking around the village after dark to wear something light-coloured or carry a torch so that drivers of vehicles know you are there. We have seen many people, walking along unlit or poorly lit roads, who are practically invisible until the last minute, and I would hate to hear of anyone being involved in an accident through not being seen. Dark clothes simply don't show you up well enough to keep you (and often your dog) safe.

Burton Women's Institute

At their October meeting, members had the pleasure of listening to our own Jan Abbot's illustrated talk on her very interesting, varied and amusing holiday in Peru. She had visited Machu, Picchu, Lake Titicaca and also Rain Forests. Kath Hayhurst gave the vote of thanks.

On the 21st September fourteen members had enjoyed a very enjoyable lunch at Kendal College. Our co-operative entry at the Westmorland Show, which had received some very favourable comments, was on display with a variety of individual entries - Items of craft, cakes and preserves. Burton WI gained a record five golds, 6 silvers and six reds.

The Competition for a souvenir was won by Lesley with Jan second. The Raffle was won by Molly with Linda second. The hostesses were Hazel and Rosie. At our next meeting on the 9th November Rob Unwin will be telling us about his sausages - complete with a tasting. The Competition will be for a 'Pig'. Helena Nixon and Sue Coates are the Hostesses.

If you wish to join the W.I. please contact our Honorary Secretary, Helena Nixon, on 01524 781048.

'CAROLS AT THE KINGS' Wednesday 6th December 6.30pm

Thank goodness someone has taken over the pub! Carols at the Kings is back! We know it's been keeping you awake at night, pondering how on earth you'll cope without this magical event!

Picture the twinkling lights, the warmth of good company, and the joyous sounds of everyone singing in harmony! Carols at the Kings is more than an event; it's a village tradition that unites us all.

And here's the cherry on top: The Carnforth Round Table Santa is scheduled to make a special appearance on the same evening, adding an extra sprinkle of magic to our festive celebration!

So, mark your calendars, invite your friends and family, and let's make this year's Carols at the Kings even more memorable!

The Word From BURTON MEMORIAL HALL

I will begin this month by saying a HUGE thank you to everyone who has supported our Crowdfunder appeal, which (as BN goes to press) stands at £770 of our £1,000 target, which is fabulous. The appeal has been boosted by some offline donations from several usual groups, and a £2,000 donation from the Holehird Trust Fund via Cumbria Community Foundation. This means that we are now able to commission the survey to assess if the main hall roof will take the proposed new roof and solar panels. The Crowdfunder appeal runs until 6th November so if you would like to support us with a donation you still have a few days to do so. <https://www.crowdfunder.co.uk/p/roof-inspection-report-for-solar-panels>.

Our next event at the hall will be the Christmas Market on Saturday 11th November, 10am until 4pm, with lots of wonderful stalls in the main hall, Jan's pop-up café in the reception room, and the hall's pop-up used bookshop in the club room. Admission is £1, with accompanied under 12's free.

I'd like to say another thank you to everyone who has come along and supported our mid-monthly coffee mornings at the hall. Our next one will take place on Saturday 18th November, 10am-11.30am, so put the date in your diary and come along and enjoy some great cake and lots of chat. We will have Kingsharp in the car park from 10am-12 noon, to sharpen knives, scissors and tools.

Our Warm Welcome Wednesdays are continuing each week, from 12.30pm until 4pm, with a hot lunch at 1pm, and hot drinks and biscuits available all afternoon. It's all very informal and friendly, if you've not been before why not give it a try?

Also, our Christmas Bingo Nights start this month, we are hosting 5 nights this year, the dates, and beneficiary organisations, are shown opposite:

Finally, we will be holding a Burns Night Supper and Ceilidh on Saturday 27th January, and tickets will be on sale at the Christmas Market, so please pop the date in your diary for that too. Music will be by Tattie Bogle and the supper will be by Jan's Pantry, as in previous years.

It's a date in Burton & Clawthorpe! History notes by Kath Hayhurst

In 1821 there were 145 houses, 149 families and 673 people in Burton. Dalton, then in Lancashire, had 30 houses, 30 families and 151 people.

By 1829 Burton had 5 Inns:

The Royal Oak,
The Kings Arms,
The Green Dragon,
The Bluebell
and The Cross Keys.

Linked to them, there were 2 coach proprietors, 2 blacksmiths, a farrier, a horse keeper, a wheelwright, and a saddler.

There were 5 farmers, but only 2 farms named i.e. Stephen Green and Layer Pitts. At New Mills there was a Maltster.

The inhabitants also included 2 vicars and 1 curate, 3 school teachers, 2 surgeons and an oculist. For the residents there were 3 stone masons, 3 joiners, a draper and a linen dealer. To clothe them, there were tailors, hatters and shoemakers.

To feed the villagers, 4 grocers, 3 butchers and 2 bakers. Other occupations included a postman, an excise officer, a wharfinger, a tanner, a twine manufacturer and a gardener/seedsman.

The 'Globe', as described in this drawing, was formerly the 'Cross Keys'

It's that time of year again..... A Note from the Post Office about Christmas Posting 2023

A leaflet with useful information is available in the Post Office but I have summarised the latest recommended posting dates below:

Surface Mail (International Economy)

Tuesday, 31 October	USA & Canada,
Friday, 24 November	Cyprus, Eastern Europe, Greece, Iceland, Malta & Turkey
Monday 27 November	Western Europe

Air Mail

Wednesday 6 December	Africa, Asia, Australia, Caribbean, Central America, China, Hong Kong, Japan, Middle East, New Zealand, South America
Thursday 7 December	Cyprus and Malta
Friday 8 December	Eastern Europe (except Czech Republic, Poland and Slovakia) Greece, Hungary
Monday 11 December	Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Italy, Norway Poland, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, USA
Wednesday 13 December	Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Slovakia, Switzerland

UK Mail

2nd Class	Monday, 18 December
1st Class	Wednesday 20 December
Parcelforce Express48	Early on Wednesday 20th December
Parcelforce Express24	Early on Thursday 21st December
Special Delivery	Thursday 21 December

Remember that parcels sent outside the U.K. need to have a customs form attached, these are available at the Post Office Counter. Regulations have changed and we are now required to enter customs information at the counter. This is time consuming, please be patient with us. Also remember to put your name and address on the top left hand corner of the front of your package; this will enable Royal Mail to return your item should overseas customs authorities refuse it entry into their country.

The usual reminder about size and weight for parcels sent abroad using Royal Mail. The maximum total of (length + width + height) is 90 cm (approx 3ft) with the maximum single dimension of 60cm (approx 2 ft). The maximum weight is 2 kg. It is really easy to exceed these and then the parcel would cost a great deal more to send via Parcel Force. It is sometimes cheaper to split a heavy parcel and send two packets.

Dangerous Goods

To comply with national and international regulations governing the carriage of mail, and to ensure that mail in transport does not present a danger to the general public, Royal Mail must restrict or prohibit certain items from their network.

So this year we will once again have to ask you what are the contents of your parcels; not just because we are being nosy or looking for gift ideas ourselves, but because there are restrictions on items containing, for example, batteries, nail varnish, perfume, aerosols etc.

Lithium batteries (the type commonly found in mobile phones and laptops), cannot be sent alone, and for international mail they must be packaged in the equipment. Beware, some countries do not permit the import of lithium batteries at all.

As always, come & ask us at the Post Office Counter for further advice. Gill.

BURTON CALENDAR 2024

Last year, following successful sales of the 2023 Calendar, we were able to make a £150 donation to the St. John's Hospice. This year's calendar, once again, features photographs kindly donated by members of the village.

The 2024 calendars are now on sale at the Village Store and, once again, profits from the sale of these calendars will be donated to St John's Hospice.

Autumn Photography Challenge

We've had a few photograph entries in response to our October 'Autumn Scene' challenge, including these from Annette Sayers and Steve Thexton. See the on-line edition for the colour versions!

We are keen to receive more, to include in our December edition - so keep them coming - either via our Facebook page or by email to burtonnewseditor@gmail.com

Vicar's Letter...

Fractured

Dear Friends,

Fractured. Would that be your description of relationships in our world? As I write, hundreds of Israelis have just been brutally murdered by those who crossed the nearby border driven by intense hatred. The expected response from Israel will lead to many deaths on both sides and huge suffering and destruction in the Gaza strip. On 12th November many will gather at our village war memorials just before 11am to remember with gratitude and sadness the sacrifice of those who defended our nation and allies when conflict engulfed the world. We would like to think that such cataclysmic days are long past but I doubt it.

Our relationship with creation is broken too. I'm not talking about our current climate panic but our long-term world-wide struggle to produce the food and other resources that we need without despising or desecrating all that God has made. I'm writing from a cottage on the Outer Hebrides and it is sobering to see what it took for crofters to live here in this cold, boggy, weather-beaten land.

Then there is our relationship with ourselves. How many of us are happy with who we are and feel at peace with ourselves? Sometimes our anger and frustration with others springs out of our disappointment with ourselves. Why do I find it so hard to change? We are, so often, our own greatest enemy.

But the root of all this brokenness, according to the diagnosis of the Bible, is a much, much deeper fracture - our broken relationship with our creator. We complain that he is distant and unwilling to help us or we complain about the unjust way he runs his world, but mostly we suppress all knowledge of him not wanting to serve and worship him as we instinctively know we should. He seems nothing like a 'heavenly Father' to us. We cannot fix this fracture from our side. But what if God made the move from his side, what if he has stepped across the barbed-wire border to offer peace with his wayward creatures? What if reconciliation with him is the essential first step to a long slow mending of all the fractured relationships with each other, with creation and with ourselves?

What if the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has plans for deep peace on earth?

Sincerely

Graham Burrows

Annual Gift Subscriptions

If you know of anyone who may like to receive BN regularly each month, why not buy them an Annual Gift Subscription? For £12 within the UK they will receive a copy of BN each month (11 copies per year). A great way for family, friends and former residents to keep in touch with what's happening here in Burton. Anyone interested should contact BN at the address in the box on page 2.
