EDITORIAL

Welcome to your August edition of Burton News! This is another packed edition with lots of events happening in the village this month. We also have big news about this year's Onion Show which is celebrating it's 50th anniversary this year. Although the show is not until 12th September (how many more sleeps is that?) we have information about how you can get involved. If you have not been before then you are in for a treat. You can enter your own spectacular vegetables into the show itself, or if you are not green fingered, can enter jams, cakes and breads. There are also opportunities for children in the village to get involved.

If you don't want to contribute competition entries, then you can always help out with raffle prizes. The raffle makes a great sum of money that benefits local charities and good causes so please help out in any way that you can. And because this year is a special anniversary, there will be a celebratory dinner dance in the evening. Please note that in a change to the usual arrangements, the Onion Show will be on a Saturday this year, so that everyone can enjoy the dinner dance without worrying about getting up for work the next day. It promises to be a fantastic day, so get the date in your diary and polish your dancing shoes.

In other news, Westmorland and Furness Council have made their decision in regards to changes to school transport, and have reached the conclusion that they cannot continue to fund free transport to the school of choice for pupils and parents. They will now only fund transport to the nearest school, with estimates that this could savethem approximately £1m p.a. This would seem to be a tiny saving in relation to the total council budget. This decision will cause problems for many families, particularly those who are unable to afford to pay for transport to the school of their choice and in effect denies the poorest families of any choice in regards to secondary education.

Please would readers note that letters & articles must include a valid name & address. This can be with-held from publication on request. We will not publish any anonymous letters, or material which, in the opinion of the Editorial Committee, is of an offensive or defamatory nature. BN reserves the right to edit letters & articles in the interests of magazine space.

Burton News has been working behind the scenes to address this issue, but have not yet been successful in getting a helpful response from W&FC. We are still waiting for a response from the new Chief Executive of W&FC, Miranda Cannon, despite regular promises of answers. Residents deserve to be given a detailed explanation of their decision making progress. The response of the Parish Council can be read in this month's sketch.

Intrigue continues to surround the situation at the King's Arms. Scaffolding suddenly appeared, lasted a few days, and then disappeared almost as quickly. Tradespeople have been seen entering and leaving, and hope is rising that this all means that we will return to being a two pub village. Thwaites have been contacted for information but at the time of going to press had yet to respond. It would be great for the community to have another pub open. The Royal Oak has been a tremendous success and is a huge asset to our community, and we are hopeful now that after months and years of turmoil, the King's will return to its former glory.

I would like to finish this month's editorial with a very special thank you. Maura Doore, the secretary of Burton News, has gone above and beyond to make sure that you receive a full edition of BN this month. It is holiday season at BN towers, with your usual editor off for a much deserved break. Maura has stepped up to the plate to put together this issue. It is not the easiest job in the world, and is made more difficult when our printer announces at the last minute that he is off on his holidays and needs the copy sending through a few days earlier. Thank you Maura for making sure that everyone gets their eagerly awaited BN on time, and for doing such a great job this month.

See you next month.
Stuart

HOLME AND BURTON MOTHER'S UNION

Report for July 2026

Strawberry Tea

The annual afternoon fund raising ‘Strawberry Tea’ took place on Saturday July 4th in the Ellen Turner Room.
Mothers’ Union members served guests with delicious scones, generously baked and provided by Wendy Critchley, and topped with strawberries and cream, plus copious cups of tea and coffee. A Raffle and popular Tombola stall also helped to raise a grand total of £373-95p for Carlisle Diocese and Holme & Burton Mothers’ Union. This amount was a slight increase on last year’s total. So grateful thanks to all who came or donated to this worthy cause. There was a lively atmosphere where everyone enjoyed good conversations, laughter and sharing memories.

The annual outing to, ‘Carnforth Heritage Museum’ will take place on Tuesday August 4th. Members travelling by bus are reminded to catch the 9:45 a.m. bus from Holme and 9:52 from Burton.

We meet again as a group in the Ellen Turner Room at Holme church on Tuesday September 1st at 2:00p.m. with a talk about, -- ‘Christmas Boxes’ for Romania by Rowena Pavey. Members are reminded to bring any donation items from the printed list given out previously.

The October meeting on Tuesday October 6th is a talk about ‘Hincaster Trailway’ by Bridget Pickthall.

Everyone will be made very welcome as the Autumn meetings begin.
Judith Fisher (Secretary)

Burton Bowling Club

A reminder to all of a special event to be held at our village bowling green on Saturday 15th August.

Our Club Chairman Nick Watts is the Honorary President for 2026 of the Morecambe Bowling League, in which the Club fields two teams. It is the responsibility of the Club the President represents to stage the annual President's Day. The format of the day from a bowling point of view is that a representative of each club in the League attends and competes in a knock-out competition.

The day and competition start early with the first games going on to the green at around 9a.m. and the bowling extends well into the afternoon or early evening, culminating in a final. The bowlers involved will include some of the best in North Lancs and South Cumbria so the competition will be high class and compelling viewing, so why not come along and spectate for a while.

Burton Fellwalkers

Burton Fellwalkers aim to do three walks each month, except in December, when we have one festive outing.

New walkers are always welcome and we offer a range of walk grades. Contact our secretary Dave Clarkson via the website https://fellwalkers.burtonweb.org.uk or on 07939 006466

BURTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Another fantastic WI evening as award winning artisan leather worker Hattie Crabtree explained how she battled against serious illness and became a Master Saddlemaker. We were shown a variety of hand made products ranging from beautiful saddles to intricate children's toys. Hattie's work is truly amazing.

Our August meeting is as different again as we combine our 'Open Gardens' afternoon with our garden party on 23rd. What a treat in store!!

News from Burton Memorial Hall

In late June the Hall was the venue for the first of three line-dancing afternoon socials organised by Sue and Helen, who run the 5678 Line-Dancing Classes. In addition to 3 hours of great music and dancing there was also a raffle, plus drinks and home-made cakes. The £185.15 profit from the day was donated to the Hall by Sue and Helen, and we are very grateful for their generosity. The next two line-dancing socials will be on Sundays 16th August and 18th October. More details from Sue on 07772 757748.

July has been a busy month at the Hall again, with our first 70th birthday/ anniversary event - the 1950s Afternoon Tea Dance, with the wonderful singer Rachel Mercer. We had a superb afternoon of dancing to songs from the 1950s, with several ladies (and a couple of gents) sporting some very fine outfits of the time. The winner of the best outfit competition was Mrs Noble, who received a Kitty Brown Boutique voucher. The event also made £123.50 for Hall funds from the sale of refreshments, so a huge thank you to everyone who came along and took part, and to those who helped with the set up, take down, and who provided the food, and helped on the day. Rachel was, as ever, a wonderful entertainer and had us up and dancing with her too.

The July coffee morning was scheduled for a week later in July (Sat 25th), so hasn't happened as I write this, but I must apologise that Kingsharp were not with us as advertised in the June BN. Apparently Kingsharp managed to double-book himself on that day (probably because our date had changed to the later one) but he assures me he will be back with us at the August coffee morning, which will be on Saturday 15th August, 10am until 11.30am (Kingsharp in the car park 10am-12noon), so please do come along and enjoy some of our delicious home-made cake and have a chat with friends. If you just want to pop in for some, we also offer cake to take away - either bring your own container or borrow one of ours to take it home with you.

Have a lovely Summer!

Remembering Bryan Yorke, whose nature blogs continue to inspire

Many villagers in Burton-in-Kendal will remember my good friend, local naturalist Bryan Yorke, who passed away in May 2022.

Bryan wrote a regular column in Burton News, as well as being very active on social media, and running several detailed, and often brilliantly illiustrated, online blogs dedicated to his love of local nature.

His main blog was entitled 'I Love Arnside and Silverdale', although it became mainly centred on Hutton Roof Crags.

Marvelously, the blog has now been viewed online over a million times!

Bryan was a lifelong birder, and enjoyed nothing more than an early morning 'vismigging' (recording migrating birds), and in his later years detailing the wonderful rare flora found on Hutton Roof Crags, particularly the orchids.

Bryan's favourite orchids remain protected each year (with wire cages from predators) and his work and commitment to share these beautiful plants continues with events such as Cumbria Wildlife Trust's popular wildflower walks.

I've enjoyed continuing the research into the extremely rare yellow flowering Dark-red Helleborine orchid, which can be found in tiny numbers each year on Hutton Roof. I teamed up with another of Bryan's friends to recently co-author and publish a scientific paper, classifying the plant as an official variety (Epipactis atrorubens var. lutescens). I know Bryan would've been very happy that we got there in the end!

I also have the privilege of maintaining his various blogs, and they will remain available online to be viewed and enjoyed.

A humble man, he would nevertheless have been over the moon that his main blog has now been viewed over a million times.

It gives both comfort and pleasure to his wife Sandra, who still lives in the village, that his work is being continued, and that his detailed online reports of his adventures and discoveries remain so popular.

Here's to the next million Bryan!

THE ONION SHOW IS 50 !!

This year the Burton Onion Show will celebrate its 50th year, so things will be changing a little for one year only, the show will NOT take place on a Sunday, it will be on SATURDAY 12th September. The show will run as normal, followed by the Auction of show produce, alongside some amazing promises. We will be starting proceedings a little earlier, entries in between 9 and 11, and the auction will start at 1.00pm. There will be the usual bar and BBQ, we will wrap things up just a little earlier than normal, so we can get the hall ready for the evening, but don't worry, there will still be plenty of time to have a pint and buy a cake or a cabbage.

In the evening there will be an Onion show ball in the hall, so dust off those dancing shoes and dress to impress, you will need to root out your best ties and Ball gowns, the plan is, you book a table of 10, then get your imagination going, decorate or theme your table in any way you like, amazing prizes for the best ones, bring your own food and drink and dance the night away to live music. To book your table please email Kate Kettlewell at Kate.arkwright@me.com. This will be on a first come first serve basis, so don't hang around.

For anyone new to the show, if you are a budding gardener and fancy your chances, you can enter any of the veg classes as many times as you like. Don't be shy if you have never entered the show before there is a class for the novice, and if it's a complete disaster, then put it in "best worst effort" this year there is also a new class for the onion seeds from last year, our local WI are also in on the act with a table centre piece.

The show has a long history and has had many helpers and organisers along the way, sadly some are no longer with us, the show started to raise money for the kids of Burton, helping cover the cost of Christmas parties, big kids' day out, the Easter egg hunt amongst other things. As it grew and grew an auction of promises was introduced. It was then able to also support some great charities as well the kids, in recent years the money has also gone to local cancer charities, something unfortunately, lots of us will have been closely involved with.

If you're not a baker or a gardener, then how about promising something for the auction. If you can help in any way, please contact either myself, Neil Shaw on 0785497885 or Carl Jackson on 07866456677. Thank you in advance, looking forward to seeing you all on Saturday 12th September.

PARISH COUNCIL SKETCH

It was a relatively quiet and quick meeting this month. Some regular topics of conversation appeared again, and continue to be discussed. During the open forum, the debate was triggered by an email that had been received by the council from a member of the public who wanted to know more about the changes to school transport. He asked for the Parish Council to request that representatives from Westmorland and Furness Council attend a meeting in Burton to explain their decision making process. Cllr Isherwood raised the point that the council will still have to pay to bus pupils to a school. So what is the difference between paying them to go to another school? Cllr Hughes responded that W&FC believe they can save approx. £1m by making these changes. By restricting pupils to their closest school, the transport costs will reduce, even though the number of journeys will not change.

Cllr Hughes went on to explain that it is not a statutory requirement to provide free transport to the school of choice. It is only a statutory requirement to provide free transport to the closest school. Cllr Hughes argued that tough choices need to be made due to reduced council funding. She understands that it will be a struggle for some families particular those that will have siblings attending different schools in the future. Cllr Wren argued that "it is not just a parish issue, it is a wider issue, and something that W&FC will have to take ownership of." The Parish Council acknowledged that this is an issue of concern for many residents and will add this as an item for further discussion to the agenda for next month. If you want to have your say, then please attend the August meeting, or email that Parish Council to have your voice heard.

In the report from Cllr Hughes, she referred to the Local Plan which is the process of being formulated by W&FC. She stated that a further call for sites has been made due to a lack of applications. W&FC are concerned that they have not received enough applications for houses to be built. Demand is currently outstripping supply. Therefore they hope that more applications will be made for land to be developed into housing across the authority.

Two planning applications were discussed but no comments were made in regards to either. They refer to minor changes to the application at Hordley House, and an application at Dalton House for a single story side extension.

Playground Fundraising Group have asked the PC to sign terms of reference for fundraising purposes. This vote was carried unanimously and therefore it is hoped that this group will be able to raise money more easily in the future.

True Greatness

Dear Friends

Alexander the Great was just 20 when he became ruler of Macedonia in 336 BC. For the next 13 years he led the Macedonian army on an incredible military campaign, capturing the whole of the Persian Empire (centred on modern-day Iran) and adopting for himself the title 'King of Kings'.

Alexander was a Classical hero, a ruthless warrior-king with a huge ego. I can't see our nation voting for a man like him to lead us now. We want our leaders to be strong but we expect them to serve us ('Prime Minister' is 'First Servant'). We want them to be on the side of justice and to stand against evil, not to go conquering and robbing other nations for us. Our heroes are not those who selfishly dominate others but those who jump into icy water to save others or who remain at the controls to steer the plane away from houses.

So what changed our definition of true heroism, and why don't all cultures in the world agree on this?

The Indian writer Vishal Mangalwadi* has given a simple answer which is all the more compelling because he has looked in on Western culture from the outside: he says we have been deeply influenced by one man and by the book that tells his story. This man's influence has been growing worldwide for 2000 years but has been most deeply felt in nations like ours where the Bible has long been read and absorbed.

If we are grateful for this reshaping of our thinking, then we should also be alarmed that many children now have very little knowledge of the Bible. Perhaps the habit of self-sacrifice is already disappearing in our nation? Do we still have leaders who deny themselves as Jesus did?

Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant". Even he, Jesus, had "not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Sincerely

Graham Burrows

A Dink in the Armor: Silverdale Steals the Win, But Burton Plots Autumn Vengeance

The Silverdale Silverpickles might currently hold the bragging rights, but The Dinkers revenge plot is officially thickening faster than a bad drop-shot! After two sensationally rowdy rounds of the ultimate local derby at Burton Memorial Hall, the visitors narrowly claimed the definitive overall victory, winning Round 2 by a tight margin of 4 games to 3.

Round 1: The Drama Begins

The intense rivalry kicked off with a masterclass in aggressive dinking. The energy was electric, featuring drop-shots so dirty they literally needed a mop, and plenty of laughs to match the fiery competition. While Burton put up a spectacular fight on their home court, Silverdale managed to edge out the opening win, setting the stage for an epic sequel.

Round 2: Physics-Defying Drama

Round 2 raised the stakes even higher with five nail-bitingly close games. Spectators witnessed mind-blowing rallies that defied the laws of physics, but the undisputed highlight of the entire series belonged to Burton's own Carol. She unleashed a jaw-dropping dink so wicked it sent a frantic Silverdale player into an all-out sprint—exiting the hall entirely in hot pursuit of the hall!

The Ultimate Autumn Grudge Match

While the Silverpickles are currently holding the bragging rights, the paddles are far from packed away. The Burton squad is already plotting a massive comeback. They are eagerly awaiting their chance at sweet revenge when they travel to face Silverdale on their own turf this autumn! Stay tuned, because this physics-defying feud is far from over.
