LETTERS

Dear Editors,

Spoiling the Neighbourhood

Isn't it sad when someone comes along, acquires a piece of land alongside your home, applies for planning permission, then simply for profit, proceeds to disrupt the lives of others by erecting buildings in front of and alongside your home, why should this be allowed?

I am of course referring to the proposed site alongside Hutton Close, where my wife and I came to live three and a half years ago.

When I was told that this narrow strip of land could be built on, in my estimation it could only hold around 12 dwellings, certainly no more than 15, (I say this because I built my own home in the 1970s) and then when I learned that 29 dwellings had been planned for this small piece of land I could hardly believe it. Why must modern planning be so congested, people need room to breathe, space to park their cars - other than the pavement I call this "Battery Henhouse" planning. It may look good on paper, but not when you have to live so close together.

Please would readers note that letters & articles must include a valid name & address. This can be with-held from publication on request. We will not publish any anonymous letters, or material which, in the opinion of the Editorial Committee, is of an offensive or defamatory nature. BN reserves the right to edit letters & articles in the interests of magazine space.

And why only 36% of them for affordable starter homes - shouldn't it be 100%? The fact is we don't need any more homes either for "Buy to Let" purposes or "Second Homes". The Westmorland Gazette is bulging with properties for sale, and there are For Sale signs displayed all over Cumbria so why do we need to build more? The priority should be for "Starter" homes for the young, who want to get married and bring up families.

This small piece of sloping land acts as an efficient soakaway system, so if the proposed planning goes ahead one can only hope that the properties at the lower end don't suffer surface flooding as a result, whenever we get heavy downpours.

These lovely open views over everyone's garden walls will be gone forever if this small piece of land is built on - two thirds of the dwellings are quite unnecessary anyway. So what is the point of building any more, unless all for the young, they are the ones who really need them.

Dear Editors,

DOG FOULING

As a mother of two young children, I try to walk them to school as often as I can. Sadly, I am becoming increasingly disgusted by the few inconsiderate dog owners who aren't cleaning up after their dogs. The footpath by the side of the Royal has been a disgrace for many years, but now it seems Station Lane, Neddy Hill and even the pavement on Main Street are not safe to walk on without risk of stepping in dog poop.

On two separate occasions recently my children have stepped in dog muck, one time being directly outside of the school gates. Not only is dog muck disgusting, it is a health hazard which can lead to blindness.

Please be considerate of other people and clean up after your dog!

Dear Editors,

Greetings from Down Under!

As you did not receive a letter last month [February] thought i could send you one, as an ex-Burtonian but regular visitor, sometimes seen in the Kings Arms, riding a bicycle, or just walking up the street with my mother or checking out the model railway with my dad.

My son Simon was featured as a far-flung reader of Burton News many years ago, sitting under a gum tree in Australia. Well he is all grown up and his 18th birthday is approaching, he has left school and got a carpenter's apprenticeship to be a builder. The photograph shows Simon proudly standing beside his restored 1975 VW Beetle which he now drives to work every day.

The weather continues warm, 20 deg at night and 30 during the day, with the odd thunderstorm and shower.

Warmest regards,
John Ellis, NSW, Australia

Station Lane / Tan Pits Lane Junction Garden

I hope that you are all enjoying the garden at the triangle. It still has some way to go, as work on it last year came to a sudden halt when my back took to going into spasm. Fortunately the team of volunteers kept working to prevent the ever-present weeds from taking over again. There is a bit of tidying up to do just now but hopefully by the time you read this the inclination and the weather will have conspired to force me to get that done.

If those of you with dogs could prevent them walking over the garden and clean up after them when they do that would be most appreciated, collecting up leaves should be just that, with no nasty surprises included.

I would like to thank the volunteers who carried on regardless. I'm sure that, from the comments made whilst working there, you feel it is worth it and that you will do it again this year? If you wish to then please give me a ring and book your month. There are a few months to spare if anyone else wishes to join in. Telephone: 781902.

The Parish Council have paid for the planting so far but that budget has now been spent. The planting is aimed for more for a park than garden feel so if anyone has suitable shrubs, bulbs or perennials to spare that would be most appreciated.

Looking forward to a very long spell of very good weather.

Happy gardening,
Charis M Twist

One More Opinion...

Reporting from the Parish Council meeting

In the absence of your usual correspondent I found myself attending both the Annual Parish and Parish Council meetings. The first kicked off at 7.00pm with all but the Chair and Clerk sitting in the public area. We were given a talk on the history of the quarry by the personable apprentice and trainee manager Dean Holmes, under the watchful eyes of Steve Rigby the Quarry Operations Manager. The meeting continued with the Chair's report on the year – which he obviously hates and would like to be rid of. After which the public forum raised no comments and so the meeting closed.

The Parish Council meeting got under way at 7.30 after a return to the more formal seating and the arrival of 10 members of the public. Item 5 on the agenda was the Open Forum, and many of those present spoke on the proposed development of the field adjacent to Church Bank Gardens. As a result of the open meeting facilitated by the Chair on the 5 March revised plans had been received by the Council but it is clear that opposition to any development on this site is strong and will not easily be quashed.

Another member of the public complained about the way the Council had dealt with a planning matter before a previous meeting but had not been present at the time. The councillors listened to the points raised.

Moving on to item 6, the consideration of planning applications, the same member of the public tried to speak again only to be prevented by the Chair, after which a general comment was made that anyone applying for planning permission was free to attend meetings and speak in the Open Forum on planning or any other matter should they wish to do so.

Item 10 – R76M Church Bank Gardens - was brought forward at the request of Councillor Rowley. Council decided that all the many letters and emails received on this matter should be sent both to the Simms and the Planning Committee at SLDC for information and background when the plans are presented – said to be April/May this year. At this point most of the public left to return to the comfort of their homes – or maybe the pub?

This seems to have been a good idea as the rest of the meeting was pretty run of the mill stuff, the only good news was the approval of payment of my cheque for plants bought in Autumn for the triangle garden.

The end of meeting round up brought news that the Royal Oak has now been planted in what is hoped to be its final position; Boon Town residents are complaining of cars being left in the car park by people not in the village; a planning site visit relating to the position of a new crematorium had taken place this week – evidently surrounded by much controversy. There has been no response from SLDC to the request for information on the footpath from the village to Clawthorpe.

The meeting was finally rounded off by the good news that the Great Grey Shrike has been seen on Dalton Fell.

Pensions & Annuities Update

You might have seen mentions in the press of the changes being made by the Chancellor in respect of pensions, which come into effect from the start of the new tax year on 6 April.

As BN goes to press there are still questions about the readiness and accuracy of advice that is available, and huge concerns that scammers may try and take advantage of the situation, leading to losses for the unwary. Having read a lot of words produced by various bits of the media and the government itself, the best advice is, we think, to do nothing in haste. There will be a government advice service made available for people to make an appointment with, and once this is in place and independent financial advisors have been properly briefed and trained, then is the time to make decisions.

So please beware cold callers, unsolicited letters and emails offering advice or re-investment (however attractive they may sound!) in the short term; it's far better to hold off a wee while and be safe than rush in, be conned and lose your money! You can find more information online at www.gov.uk, or on the government's money advice service website www.moneyadvice.service.org.uk.

Historical Footnote...

... by Roger Bingham

BURTON IN THE YEAR OF WATERLOO 1815

Burton, around the time of Britain's and her allies victory over Napoleon Bonaparte at the Battle of Waterloo in June 1815, was enjoying a peak of prosperity. The population had grown from 548 in 1801 to 574 in 1811 and would reach 673 by 1821. By contrast, a century later the 1921 census recorded only 538 inhabitants.

In 1815 the village had a healthy mixed economy of agriculture, trade and industry with a short-lived emphasis on road transport using the Heronsyke-Eamont Bridge Turnpike. There were day and night stage coaches to the south and north and, also, horse-posts to meet the Yorkshire Mail at Kirkby Lonsdale and for the Ulverston Mail at Milnthorpe. The main coaching inns were the King's Arms, Green Dragon, and the Royal Oak. Anthony Harrison and Thomas Varty ran carrying services to Lancaster and Kirkby Lonsdale.

Burton's many professional people included the Rev Bryan Waller, vicar; Rev Gawen Hodgson, curate; William Clapham, solicitor and clerk to the magistrates and agent to the Norwich Union Fire office; James Irvine, surgeon; Michael Pearson, Grammar School Master; Joseph Ridley, excise officer; and John Williams, Esq., oculist. Other officially registered esquires or gentlemen were William Atkinson, Thomas North and Henry Ovington.

Trades men included Septimus Bainbridge, stonemason; Thomas Beetham, tailor; John Cocking and George Morland, blacksmiths; Richard Danson, seeds man; Luke Harrison, joiner and wheelwright; Anthony Helm, grocer; Robert Jackson and John Towers, shoemakers; Richard Giles and William Thompson, bakers; Edward Tomlinson, tanner; Richard Wilcock, butcher; and Richard Wilson draper and hatter. Only one farmer, Francis Wilkinson, is registered in the contemporary Parson and White's Directory.

But in 1815, out of 16 weddings the occupations of six grooms were husbandmen or farm labourers. Two grooms, John Rooking and John Wearing, were flax-dressers (at Holme Mills) and there were two carpenters, Luke Harrison and Thomas Greenup. John Foxcroft who married a Burton girl, Ann Bush, was a weaver from Heversham. 26 baptisms included Stephen, a "base child of Deborah Wilson of Coat Green a spinster."

With only 19 registered burials the Burton death rate was lower than for births. There were three octogenarians' deaths: Catherine Thexton (88), George Pinder (80), and William Swainson (83); four infant deaths under one year old, and one child, Ann Wadeson from Warton, who was seven.

Church accounts, recorded by Church Wardens John Dixon, Matthew Hutton, Robert Hebblethwaite and William Roberts, included 4d each for a dead otter and a "foumart", 5 shillings for sparrows from Dalton and six shillings for the same "vermin" from Holme. Robert Birkett received five guineas for "teaching the children", while repairs to the church clock cost £2 13s 6d.

Nowhere, however, is there a mention of the Battle of Waterloo, although the 6s 6d paid to the church bell ringers might have included a payment for a Victory Peal. But tucked in amongst the matter of fact church statistics there was a verse from an Easter Hymn, If Angels sung at our Saviour's birth. On that Auspicious Morn, We may imitate their mind, now that he again is born.

Big Kids' Day Out - 18 April

It's that time of year when we think about the Big Kids' Day Out for those children who are in yr 7 and upwards.

After the success of previous years we have decided to take the children paintballing at Wrights Leisure as we always have a great day. Anyone wanting to join us will need to be up at Wrights Leisure at Warton at 10am. where parents will need to fill in consent forms - directions can be found on Wrights Leisures website or contact us on the numbers below for directions.

We aim to be finished by 2pm - please note that 2pm is a guide time - we can not guarantee this time due to us not running the event but will aim to be as close to it as possible.

We ask that anyone taking part on the day is suitably dressed for a days paintballing.

We as a sports committee will be providing hot & cold drinks and some snacks for between games. We ask that children bring a packed lunch and money for extra bullets.

For those children who are wanting to come we ask for £5 to secure the child's place - Burton Sports Committee cover the cost for the rest of the event - to contact us, secure a place or simply ask for some more info on the event please contact either of us:

Sports' Day - Monday 25 May

Float theme: Disney Pixar

With our annual sports' day fast approaching the theme has been decided - Disney Pixar, the boxes are now in the shop and at the school to vote for this years Rosebuds, Rose Attendants and Rose Queen, and we can now confirm that the venue is going to be the Recreation Ground.

We are hoping and aiming for the same success of last year (with the weather also) and have lots of new ideas for all ages to be able to enjoy. For this to happen we need to see plenty of floats, and support from the village on the day and also at the family disco in the evening.

Will any winners of trophies from last year's races hand them back to us by the 15 May - they can be handed to any sports committee member or can be dropped off at 22 Glebe Close before the cut-off date.

BURTON W.I.

At their March meeting the members of Burton WI enjoyed a very interesting talk and instructions by Judith Favret on paper making. Judith provided the necessary equipment and members had great fun producing their own samples. The competition for a Paper Clip was won by Audrey Frost with Kath Hayhurst second. Judith contributed a raffle prize which Helen Dawson won and Kath Hayhurst was second.

At the April meeting Caroline Goleckza will be talking on Makeover Magic and the competition will be a Scarf.

New members and visitors are welcome, please contact Helena Nixon on 781048 for more information.

Better than a dusty old book

Alexander the Great was just 20 when he became ruler of Macedonia in 336 BC. For the next 13 years he led the Macedonian army on an incredible military campaign, capturing the whole of the Persian Empire and adopting for himself the title "King of Kings."

Alexander was a Classical hero, a ruthless warrior-king with a huge ego. Such a man would not be acceptable to us today as a leader of Britain. We want our leaders to be strong but we expect them to serve us (the Prime Minister is the First Servant.) We want them to be on the side of oppressed people everywhere, not to go conquering and robbing other nations for us. Our heroes are not those who selfishly dominate others but those who jump into icy water to save others or who remain at the controls to steer the plane away from houses. So what changed our definition of true heroism, and why don't all cultures in the world agree on this?

The Indian writer Vishal Mangalwadi* has given a simple answer, which is all the more compelling because he has looked in on Western culture from the outside: he says we have been deeply influenced by one man and by the book that tells his story. This man's influence has been growing for 2,000 years but has been most deeply felt in those countries where the Bible has for hundreds of years been read and absorbed – in North America and Britain, and elsewhere in NW Europe.

Far from making us proud we should be grateful and alarmed that the source of this influence is now largely blocked up. How long will it be before the reservoir of habitual self-sacrificial love dries up?

Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant." Even he, Jesus, had "not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." Good Friday has given us a very different kind of hero.

Happy Easter,

SINGING COMPETITION SUCCESS

Our very own Burton Singers are celebrating a success after finishing runners up in the prestigious Mary Wakefield Westmorland Music Festival in March. Competing in the Group of Singers class against seven other choirs from across the South Lakes, including Windermere, Kendal and Satterthwaite, the Burton Singers performed Moon River from Breakfast at Tiffany's and Don't Stop Me Now by Queen to wild applause from the audience at Kendal United Reformed Church! This is the first time Burton Singers have competed at a music festival so the whole group were delighted to finish runners up. Their performance was even awarded a Certificate of Distinction by the judge.

Well done to everyone involved and huge thanks to Val Still and Stuart Wickes for their commitment to the group. Next stop The Albert Hall!

Diary date: Don't miss The Burton Singers' next concert in the Memorial Hall on Saturday 27 June. They are also performing at a Lancashire night in Torrisholme on Friday 24 April and Country Harvest in Ingleton on Thursday 18 June.

For more information about the Burton Singers call Val Still on 07799 246415 or 01524 781161.

BURTON & HOLME YOUTH CLUB

We have had a busy term, with a meal out at the Honey Tree Morecambe, to celebrate Chinese New Year; supporting Comic Relief with a fun and games night at Lakes Leisure Centre run by Young Cumbria, as well as the normal Youth Club Friday nights at Clawthorpe Hall with tuckshop, games, activities, music and friends. We have also been invited to go on a trip to the Sandcastle Water Park in Blackpool with other youth clubs across Cumbria on the first weekend of the Easter break.

We are back on 17 April after Easter, and this coming term we are having another Capernwray Swimming Night on 8 May, and looking forward to some outdoor games as the nights get lighter.

Burton and Holme Youth Club runs every Friday night in term-time from 7.30-9pm at Clawthorpe Hall Business Centre. Everyone is welcome from years 7-11. If you would like to come along and visit us for a session it is £2, or become a member for the whole year for £20.

Please contact Marie Whittaker on 01524 784733 for more information.

Roger Reports...

from the District & County Councils

'Money', they say is "at the root of all evil": and it certainly felt like it at the Budget Meetings for both Cumbria County Council and for South Lakeland District Council. Also, both councils hit the headlines for non-financial matters. At the county, a councillor was photographed using his mobile phone - though, I personally didn't think he was any more reprehensible than the many other members who seemed to be glued to their iPads and tablets.

On the District, while discussing tourist attractions, a member declared that Kendal would become a more attractive venue if Lap Dancing clubs were introduced but by whom he did not say. This was a new idea to me, for although I know about such geographically named dances as the Highland Fling, the only possibly Scandinavian dance I'd previously encountered is the Skaters Waltz. Also, on the tourist topic I tried unsuccessfully to curb the development of the fields near Scroggs Wood on the attractive southern (A6) entrance to Kendal because the site is of archaeological importance, as it is close to the remains of the Roman fort of Watercrock. But I am hopeful that a fuller rescue dig rather than just a desk-based survey may be carried out. One never knows, with full excavation we might uncover a major attraction like that of Vindolanda near Hadrian's Wall, which 50 years ago was, like Watercrock today, mainly under the meadows.

Seriously, the county council administration proposal was carried to increase, for the first time for five years, the county's share of the Council Tax by 1.99%. This will mean that a Band D house charge will go up from £1,161 to £1,184. The opposition, supported by some independents, had proposed no Council Tax increase. Controversially, they suggested this would be financed partly by amalgamating some Child Care and Family Centres and by closing some under-occupied care homes. There was uproar when the opposition leader suggested that the Children's Clothing Allowance could be paid in vouchers rather than in cash which "might be spent on anything else." The opposition's proposals to keep home to school and college transport and subsidies for rural buses were also rejected.

There were mixed views on the proposal to build a new £10m HQ in Carlisle, with the administration claiming that amalgamation of premises would save £900,000 and the opposition arguing that with a 50% personnel reduction we have more than enough space at Carlisle's more central offices. But the new HQ "would cut the council's carbon output in half from 1,546 tonnes to 826 tonnes." In Kendal most of the 1960s offices behind County Hall have been demolished. But whether any public building will go there is debatable as the town already has an empty white elephant at K Village.

Everybody, accepted that savings and tax rises were bound up with the coalition government's requirement to cut council spending. Cumbria has slashed expenditure most recently by £88m but there is still another £30m to find. Most economies have been in staffing. The work force which was 10,000 in 2013 is now down to about 7,000 and it is planned to fall to 5,200 by 2018. Up to now most staff savings have been through voluntary redundancy, but the ratio is now 60% voluntary to 40% compulsory. Consequently, members were not surprised by encountering a demonstration by Unison members as we arrived for the budget. Please what do you think?

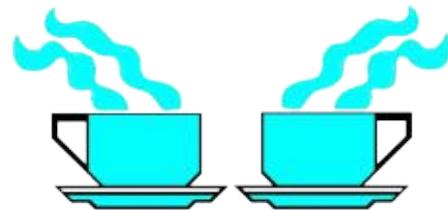

Unfortunately only about 600 hundred council tax payers responded to a countywide survey, which was half of last year's response. In contrast the district council decided not to increase its share of the Council Tax, and rejected an opposition proposal to reduce SLDC's tax by drawing on reserves swollen partly by slippage in failing to complete projects and, also, by economies. These included cancelling the in-house magazine which we were told is widely appreciated by residents. Is it?

Have a happy Easter - all the best

Swifts heading for Burton

As you read this, some of our summer migrants will have already landed. First we will get the Chiffchaff which will have arrived any day from the 15 March, and if I was a gambling man, and going off previous histories, I would say the first birds back will probably be the Thornleigh/Mowbray pair, but would also expect the Dalton Crag birds to be back by at least the 25 March.

Also 14 Sand Martins have already been recorded at Borwick on the 16 March, the odd Wheatear have been showing down on the coastal areas of Carnforth on that same date. So things are really beginning to get going now.

I have had, on no less than two previous occasions, early Swallows hawking on Hutton Roof Common, as early as the 25 March, but the majority will arrive between the 8 - 20 April. I would expect to see the Blackcaps from early April.

But what about our village Swifts? Well I would expect them to be leaving Africa anytime from about the first week in April, so that they can keep to their expected ETA date of early May. Probably some will have entered the country from the middle of April, so it's eyes to the skies folks!

Which of our Swift family groups will arrive back first? Will it be the lads from the Manor, or will it be the Regal set from the Royal, or will it be the "Cocks" in their yard, or maybe the POSTIES? Let's enjoy our feathered friends,

Happenings at the BURTON MEMORIAL HALL

The Hall committee received notice that the Doctor's surgery, held in the south end of the building for very many years, was to close at the end of March on the retirement of Dr John Gorrigan from the Stoneleigh practice at Milnthorpe. The committee would like to extend their best wishes to Dr Gorrigan for a long and happy retirement.

The surgery's closure means that the Hall now has a fourth meeting space available for hire. The former surgery, now renamed the Meeting Room, can accommodate small groups (up to 30 persons) and is equipped with the usual kettle, mugs and washing up facilities, and benefits from the free WiFi internet access within the Hall. If you would like to book the Meeting Room, or any other part of the Hall, please contact the Bookings Manager Helen Dawson, on 782277.

The recent #Mutley band night in the Hall was a sell-out success, which raised the marvellous sum of £1069 for Hall funds. A huge thank you goes to the band for donating their time, and to those who helped set up, take down, manned the door and ran the bar, and to everyone who came along and supported the event.

Our next fundraiser will be a fashion show by Foxy Lady, with Love Beauty and Le Cose Belle, of Kirkby Lonsdale, which will take place on Thursday 23 April and tickets are on sale from 1 April at Burton Village Store & Foxy Lady.

Just running the Hall costs £76 per day, and our current income from room hire fees is just covering this, but that leaves no surplus for future improvements. The committee is loathe to increase hire rates unless we have to, as we feel that the Hall should be affordable for any group that needs to use it, so we have to continue fundraising to be able to operate and maintain the Hall, and to undertake our next project, which is a revamp of the stage area in the main Hall. The ceiling over the stage needs to be replaced, the existing timber frame which supports curtains, lights and scenery is getting beyond use, and the stage curtains also need renewing.

These essential repairs will be combined with the installation of stage lights, and a sound system which will be available for groups and party bookings. Although we shall be seeking grant aid to fund this we do need to raise a percentage of the cost ourselves, so every fundraising event is important and we hope that you will come along and support us.

The Hall's next meeting will be the Annual General Meeting, which takes place on Monday 8 June at 7.30pm, and is open to all residents of the parish of Burton, why not come along?

The King's Arms

More room at the inn!

Your Editors were delighted to be invited by Anne and Neil France to the VIP opening night of the new accommodation at The King's Arms last month. Having not been VIPs before we were not quite sure what to wear or what to expect when we arrived. Would it be posh? Would there be famous faces? Would we have to say anything? Barry decided that he wasn't going to don dress shirt and dickie bow, so I decided a simple black outfit was the way to go for me - black goes anywhere doesn't it?

Having been allowed to explore and take photographs, we were escorted back to the main building to enjoy a finger buffet and time to chat with the other guests. Familiar faces from the village mingled with representatives of Thwaites, whilst Ann and Neil were finally able to breathe a sigh of relief that all was finished "with two hours to spare" and that they and their guests were all able to enjoy a very pleasant evening.

Arriving just before the official ribbon cutting and photographs in the courtyard we were ushered inside and provided with drinks, before being given a tour of the newly converted King's Barn bedrooms across the courtyard from the main building. We were impressed, not only at how quickly the work had been completed: a shade over 8 weeks I think, but also at how cosy and welcoming the rooms were. A relaxing colour scheme, with superb framed photos by local photographer John Jackson which echoed the name of each room, would, we felt, ensure speedy take up and frequent occupancy of the new accommodation.

News from the Lancaster Canal

Members of Kendal Diving Club searching for the sunken Diphtheria barge in the Lancaster canal have finally found the boat remains. On Saturday 7 March at 4.10pm she was located in shallow water about 4 foot deep. Walking on the gunwale (Gun'al' in naval slang) Kendal Club members fully identified the barge as a typical Lancaster wooden barge 72 feet in length with a beam of 4 feet.

Lancaster Canal Trust had contacted Canal and River Trust, custodians of the canal on behalf of the Nation, for permission to dive the site before dredging could take place, necessary on this section due to a massive build up of Horse Tail Weed.

This work is needed before the IWA National Trail Boat Festival on 30 May to 1 June can take place alongside CountryFest. Around 30 trail boats from around the country, one from as far away as Southampton, will take part in exercises and a spectacular illuminated display on the evening of Monday 1 June. Definitely a date for your diary.

Macbeth Speaks

Adm: £12 U18s: £5 Members: £10

Macbeth returns to our world in the present to put the record straight. Shakespeare ("that bald little scribe") got it wrong. He deceived - Macbeth was not the tragedy we know and accept as gospel but rather its truth is a tale of legitimate power and benevolence ("23 years of food and prosperity"). The Shakespearean shibboleth is questioned, reflected upon and challenged in the name of historical truth and justice. Discrepancies bring into relief Shakespeare's devices in plot construction and recalibrate our perceptions of him as writer. The tone, however, is comedic, ironical with a healthy caustic undertone often very funny when worn by one who feels 'hard done by'.

Editorial...

Stuffed again!

Once again we bring you a packed 32-page issue with news and views on a whole range of topics. Our postbag, whilst not exactly bulging, had more Letters this month than for many a long while. Please do keep them coming: BN is your village news and we love to hear what you like and what is bothering you.

Didn't they do well?

Burton Singers, that is. The runner-up slot in their first entry into the Mary Wakefield Music Festival is no mean feat, so well done to all concerned. Onward and upward!

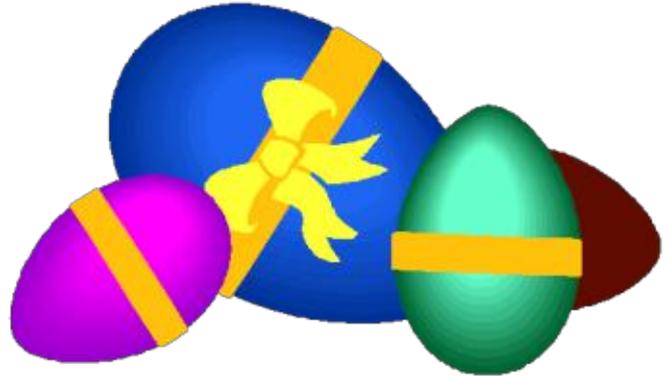

Meanwhile, commiserations to Burton Amateur Dramatic Society at this year's Cumbria Drama Festival, whose humorous play kept the small audience giggling, even the adjudicator - we were sat near and could hear him! Both Alyson Yates and Fliss Holloway were shortlisted for trophies, as was the BADS set decor, but all were sadly pipped at the post. The standard this year was incredibly high, and being first on of the four competitors is not the easiest place to be. Well done all again!

Bits of officialdom...

We make no apology for including a couple of items this month that you may be more used to seeing in national media. The Pensions issue is one which is causing concern to many, whilst the Electoral Register issue came up in our own household when one of us appears to have disappeared off the list. As we always think such hassles happen to others, it's worth flagging them up, as others are close to home this time!
